Marketing Techniques for Financial Inclusion and Development

Dhiraj Jain
Symbiosis International University (Deemed), India

Adya Sharma
Symbiosis International University (Deemed), India
Table of Contents

Preface........................................................................................................................................... xvi

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................. xx

Chapter 1
Boundless Banking: The Role of Evolution in Personal Banking for Financial Inclusion in India ................................................................................................................................. 1

Varun Rajan, Symbiosis International University, India

Chapter 2
Payment Banks and Small Finance Banks: A Route to Better Financial Inclusion? .......................................................................................................................... 16

Dhiraj Jain, Symbiosis International University (Deemed), India

Vijay Prakash Misra, Symbiosis International University (Deemed), India

Chapter 3
Customer Shareholding as a Radical Approach to a Sustainable and Profitable Relationship .................................................................................................................. 35

Sara Elouadi, La Faculté des Sciences Juridiques Economiques et Sociales Ain Sebaâ, Morocco

Rachid Elotmani, ISCAE, Morocco

Chapter 4
Effectiveness of Financial Inclusion Initiatives: A Case Study of Rajasthan State ......................................................................................................................... 48

K. Sanal Nair, Samsidh Mount Litera Zee School, India

Saumya Jain, Cognus Technology, India
Chapter 5
How Customer Analytics and Digital Technologies Drive Banks to Understand Consumer Awareness Towards Financial Inclusion ........................................66
Yuvraj Sharma, SLK Global Solutions Pvt. Ltd., India

Chapter 6
Financial Literacy for Financial Inclusion Using Mobile Technology in India .................................................................................................................86
Smriti Ashish Pathak, Symbiosis International University, India
Shreya Virani, Symbiosis International University, India

Chapter 7
Financing Millennials in Developing Economies: Banking Strategies for Undergraduate Students .................................................................104
Bernardo Amezcua, Universidad Autonoma de Coahuila, Mexico
Alicia De la Peña, Universidad Autonoma de Coahuila, Mexico
Arturo Briseño, Universidad Autonoma de Tamaulipas, Mexico
Alfredo Sánchez-Aldape, Universidad Autonoma de Tamaulipas, Mexico
Juana María Saucedo-Soto, Universidad Autonoma de Coahuila, Mexico
Alicia Hernández-Bonilla, Universidad Autonoma de Coahuila, Mexico

Chapter 8
Challenges Faced by Banks for Financial Inclusion: Growth and Viability in the Indian Context ..................................................................................134
Deepa Pillai, Symbiosis International University, India
Ravi Kumar V. V., Symbiosis International University, India

Chapter 9
Consumer Awareness Towards Financial Inclusion in India: A Study on Mahanagar Co Op Bank Ltd, Mumbai ........................................................165
Sanal Nair, Samsidh Mount Litera Zee School, India
Garima Gupta, Economic Research India Private Limited, India

Chapter 10
Journey of Financial Inclusion Driven by Indian Banking Industry ..........186
Abhineet Saxena, University of Rajasthan, India
Ashish Sharma, India International School, India
Chapter 11
Leveraging Tax as a Tool for Financial Inclusion of MSMEs: Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) and Financial Exclusion ..................................................224
Richa Sawhney, Richa Sawhney & Associates, India

Chapter 12
The Case of the Missing Customer! .................................................................240
Pooja Sharma, Independent Researcher, India

Chapter 13
The Study of the Relationship Between the Slum Customers and the Factors Affecting Bank Account Opening Under Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojna in Lucknow .............................................................................................................259
Vaibhav Misra, Symbiosis International University, India
Anubha Vashisht, Symbiosis International University, India
Parul Tolani, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, India
Kushendra Mishra, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, India

Chapter 14
Financial Inclusion Through Microenterprises of Rural SHGs: An Empirical Study in South Rajasthan .................................................................269
Rahul Vyas, Pacific Business School, India
Nidhi Nalwaya, PIM India, India

Compilation of References ...............................................................................282

About the Contributors ....................................................................................306

Index ..............................................................................................................310