

THE ROUTLEDGE
COMPANION TO EXPRESSIONISM IN A
TRANSNATIONAL CONTEXT

Edited by Isabel Wünsche

FUNDED BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSIONER FOR CULTURE AND THE MEDIA, FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xxviii
List of Contributors	xxx
Notes to the Reader	xxxvi

Expressionist Networks, Cultural Debates, and Artistic Practices: A Conceptual Introduction	1
Isabel Wünsche

PART I

Central and Eastern Europe and the Baltic States 31

1 Prague—Brno: Expressionism in Context	33
Marie Rakušanová
2 Košice Modernism and Anton Jaszusch's Expressionism	56
Zsófia Kiss-Szemán
3 Expressionism in Hungary: From the Neukunstgruppe to Der Sturm	73
András Zwickel
4 Poznań Expressionism and Its Connections with the German and International Avant-Garde	92
Lidia Gluchowska

5	Expressionist Networks in the Russian Empire, Soviet Russia, and the Soviet Union Isabel Wünsche	113
6	Expressionism in Lithuania: From German Artistic Import to National Art Giedrė Jankevičiūtė and Laima Laučkaitė	134
7	Expressionist Originality in Latvian Art: Between Confirmation and Destruction Ginta Gerharde-Upeniece	158
8	The Ambivalent Affair of Estonian Expressionism Tiina Abel	173
PART II
Scandinavia		189
9	Expressionism in Denmark: Art and Discourse Torben Jelsbak	191
10	Expressionisms in Sweden: Anti-Realism, Primitivism, and Politics in Painting and Print Margareta Wallin Victorin	206
11	Nationalism, Transnationalism, and the Discourses on Expressionism in Finland: From the November Group to Ina Behrsen-Colliander Timo Huusko and Tutta Palin	222
12	Expressionism in Sámi Art: John Savio's Woodcuts of the 1920s and 1930s Tuija Hautala-Hirvioja	243
13	Early Expressionism in Icelandic Art: Jón Stefánsson, Jóhannes Kjarval, and Finnur Jónsson Margrét Elísabet Ólafsdóttir	257

PART III
Western Europe	273
14 Early Engagements: Peripheral British Responses to German Expressionism Christian Weikop	275
15 Expressionism in the Netherlands Geurt Imanse and Gregor Langfeld	295
16 Flemish Expressionism in Belgium Cathérine Verleysen	316
17 Jewish Expressionists in France, 1900–1940 Richard D. Sonn	332
18 German Expressionism in Italy: Herwarth Walden’s Der Sturm , the Berlin Novembergruppe, and the Modernist Circles of Florence, Turin, and Rome Irene Chytraeus-Auerbach	348
19 Expressionism and the Spanish Avant-Garde between Restoration and Renovation Wiebke Gronemeyer	365
20 Portuguese Expressionism, or German Expressionism in Portugal? Nina Blum de Almeida	377
PART IV
Southeastern Europe	393
21 Expressionism in Slovenia: The Aspects of a Term Marko Jenko	395
22 From Anxiety to Rebellion: Expressionism in Croatian Art Petar Prelog	408

23	On New Art and Its Manifestations: Rethinking Expressionism in the Visual Arts in Belgrade Ana Bogdanović	426
24	Tokens of Identity: Expressionisms in Romania around the First World War Erwin Kessler	442
25	Expressionism in Bulgaria: Critical Reflections in Art Magazines and the Graphic Arts Irina Genova	465
PART V
Beyond Europe		485
26	Expressionism in Canada and the United States Oliver A. I. Botar and Herbert R. Hartel, Jr.	487
27	Expressionism in Latin America and Its Contribution to the Modernist Discourse Maria Frick	507
28	The Expressionist Roots of South African Modernism Lisa Hörstmann	525
	Selected Bibliography	542
	Name Index	553
	Subject Index	567
	Geographical Index	578