The ecological eye
Assembling an ecocritical art history

Andrew Patrizio

Manchester University Press
Contents

Acknowledgements  viii
Introduction  1

Part I  Towards an ecocritical art history

1  The evolution of ecocritical art history  29
2  Art history in an expanded field: techniques, materials, land, energy, environments  45
3  Ecologies of feminism and the queer  60

Part II  The politics of nonhierarchy: anarchism, social ecology and art

4  Anarchist and social ecological roots  81
5  Art history and anarchism  95
6  Ecologies: political, cultural, green  112

Part III  Matter, ground and flesh

7  New materialism and the wisdom of the rocks  135
8  Art history as a posthumanities practice  146
9  Animalities and implantations  162

Conclusion: Paying attention – environmental justice and ecocritical art history  178

Bibliography  190
Index  201