A Companion to Curation

Edited by

Brad Buckley and John Conomos

WILEY Blackwell
Contents

Series Editor’s Preface x
About the Editors xi
Notes on Contributors xiii
Acknowledgments xvii
Foreword xviii
List of Illustrations xx
Introduction xxiv

Part I  An Overview: The Origin and Provenance of Curating 1

1 A Selective History of Curating in Pittsburgh: The Recent Story of the Carnegie International 3
   David Carrier

2 Curating Curiosity: Imperialism, Materialism, Humanism, and the Wunderkammer 23
   Adam Geczy

3 Professionalizing the Field: The Case of the United States 43
   Andrew McClellan

4 The Emergence of the Professional Curator 67
   Carole Paul

Part II  Movements, Models, People, and Politics 87

5 Curating as a Verb: 100 Years of Nation States 89
   Juli Carson
CONTENTS

6 Curating without Borders: Transnational Feminist and Queer Feminist Practices for the Twenty-first Century
Elke Krasny

7 Displacements and Sites: Notes on a Curatorial Method
Maria Lind

8 Africa, Art, and Knowing Nothing: Some Thoughts on Curating at the British Museum
Chris Spring

9 Curatorial Crisis
Martha Wilson

Part III The Curator in a Globalized World

10 "We Care as Much as You Pay" – Curating Asian Art
Thomas J. Berghuis

11 Museums Are Everywhere in China, There Is No Museum in China: (or, How Institutional Typologies Define Curatorial Practices)
Biljana Ćirić

12 Curating the Contemporary in Decolonial Spaces: Observations from Thailand on Curatorial Practice in Southeast Asia
Gregory Galligan

13 Curated from Within: The Artist as Curator
Alex Gawronski

14 Decolonizing the Ethnographic Museum
Gerald McMaster

15 The Creature from the Id: Adventures in Aboriginal Art Curating
Djon Mundine

16 The Impact of Context Specificity in Curating amidst the Forces at Play in a Globalized World of Realms
Fatma Ustek

17 The Neglected Object of Curation
Lee Weng-Choy

Part IV Beyond the Museum: Curating at the Frontier

18 Parallel Processing: Public Art and New Media Art
Sara Diamond
CONTENTS

19 Approach to the Curatorship of Virtual Reality Exhibitions
   Arnau Gifreu-Castells
   360

20 Tracing the Ephemeral and Contestational: Aesthetics and Politics of The Living Archive
   Eric Kluitenberct
   375

21 Curating with the Internet
   Sean Lowry
   391

22 Arts and Science: The Intersection (Re)engineered
   Melentie Pandilovski
   422

Index
   447