

Lessons in Art: Art, Education, and Modes of Instruction since 1500

Lessen in kunst: Kunst, onderwijs en vormen van instructie sinds 1500

Editors / Redactie:

Eric Jorink

Ann-Sophie Lehmann

Bart Ramakers

BRILL

LEIDEN . BOSTON

2019

Contents / Inhoud

Ann-Sophie Lehmann, Eric Jorink & Bart Ramakers	Lessons in art, lessons for life	6
Caecilie Weissert	Clément Perret's Exercitatio alphabetica (1569). A calligraphic textbook and sample book on eloquence	30
Koenraad Jonckheere	Aertsen, Rubens and the questye in early modern painting	72
Edward H. Wouk	Pathosformel as grammar. From Lambert Lombard to Aby Warburg	100
Bart Ramakers	Paper, paint, and metal foil. How to costume a tyrant in late sixteenth-century Holland	136
Ann-Sophie Lehmann	An alphabet of colours. Valcooch's Rules and the emergence of sense-based learning around 1600	168
Jenny Boulboulé	Drawn up by a learned physician from the mouths of artisans. The Mayerne manuscript revisited	204
Erin Travers	Jacob van der Gracht's Anatomie for artists	250
Jaya Remond	'Draw everything that exists in the world.' 't Light der Teken en Schilderkonst and the shaping of art education in early modern northern Europe	286
Joost Keizer	Rembrandt's nature. The ethics of teaching style in the Dutch Republic	322
Erin Downey	Learning in Netherlandish workshops in seventeenth-century Rome	348
Annemarie Kok	Do it yourself! Lessons in participation in a dynamic labyrinth	378