Contemporary Museum Architecture and Design

Theory and Practice of Place

Edited by Georgia Lindsay
Contents

Acknowledgments vii
List of contributors ix

Introduction – Georgia Lindsay 1

PART 1: ICONS: Interrogating Spectacle and Design 7

1 Iconic or Engaging? Beyond the Spectacle – Elizabeth Ann Macgregor 9
2 The Power of Star Architecture and Iconic Design: Kunsthaus Graz, Austria – Johannes Dreher, Nadia Alaily-Mattar, and Alain Thierstein 23

PART 2: INVITATIONS: Design with Communities in Mind 63

5 Making an Urban Living Room: Museum of Contemporary Art Cleveland, Ohio, US – Megan Lykins Reich 86
6 Museum as Place-maker – Kerstin Thompson 105

PART 3: EXPERIENCES: Understanding and Reimagining Design Inside 135

8 The Open and Integrated Museum – William Smart 137
9  Building Citizens by Building Museums: Royal Ontario Museum
& Art Gallery of Ontario – Matt Patterson 155
10  Experience and Meaning in Museums – Helen Norrie 178
11  Planning Art Museums from Inside-out: Design for Visitor
Experiences – İpek Kaynar Rohloff 195
12  Illuminating History: The Mosegaard Museum in Aarhus,
Denmark – Jade Polizzi 215

PART 4: BODIES AND MINDS: Designing for Inclusion 229
13  A Sensory Place for All – Meredith Banasiak 231
14  Understanding Museum Architecture from Disability Experience:
Pavilion of Knowledge in Lisbon, Portugal – Caroline Van Doren,
Peter-Willem Vermeersch, and Ann Heylighen 246
15  Body Conscious Design in Museums – Galen Cranz and Chelsea Rushton 260

PART 5: SUSTAINABILITIES: Green Design for New Museums 277
16  Triple Bottom Line Sustainable Design: Western Spirit: Scottsdale’s
Museum of the West in Arizona, US – Christiana Moss and Christopher Alt 279
17  Less Energy, More Stability: Passive Building Principles for Collection- and Visitor-Friendly Net-Zero and Net-Positive
Buildings, and a Proposal for the Museum of Energy –
Jonathan Bean 297
18  Bringing Nature into Place: Green Roofs as Place Makers in Museum Architecture – Angela Loder 314

Index 333