

*New Perspectives on Abraham Bloemaert
and his Workshop*

Edited by Léonie Marquaille

BREPOLS

Contents

Preface
LÉONIE MARQUAILLE	7

Abraham Bloemaert as a Universal Painter

Between Fable and Nature: Abraham Bloemaert in Dutch Seventeenth-Century Art Theory
JAN BLANC	17
The Tree and the Farmhouse: Bloemaert, Van Mander and the Birth of Dutch Landscape Painting
BOUDEWIJN BAKKER	39
Candlelight, Devotional Meditation, and Artistic Process in Abraham Bloemaert's Supper at Emmaus
NATASHA SEAMAN	67
'Niet te verladen': The Manner and Meaning of Abraham Bloemaert and Boëtius à Bolswert's Sylva anachoretica of 1619
WALTER S. MELION	89

Abraham Bloemaert's Workshop and Legacy

Abraham Bloemaert: Artistic Strategy and Workshop Production
GERO SEELIG	145
Printmaking in Bloemaert's Workshop in Utrecht. Reconsidering Abraham's Collaboration with his Sons: Cornelis II and Frederick
LÉONIE MARQUAILLE	167
Cornelis Bloemaert II: Rethinking his Role as Reproductive Engraver
ERIN DOWNEY	187
Late Bloomers: Nicolaes Knüpfer, Jan Baptist Weenix, Jan Both and the Utrecht Workshop of Abraham Bloemaert
ELIZABETH NOGRADY	211
'Son goût de dessein tenoit toujours du pays': Abraham Bloemaert's Graphic Legacy in Eighteenth-Century France
J. CABELLE AHN	233

ON ATTRIBUTION

Attributing the Adoration of the Shepherds in Antibes Cathedral.
A Painting by Abraham Bloemaert's Workshop or his Son Hendrick?
OLIVIER ZEDER. 255

Bibliography. 261

About the Authors 279

Abstracts 283

Index of Names 289