

---

JHERONIMUS BOSCH

*2nd International
Jheronimus Bosch Conference*

May 22-25, 2007

*'s-Hertogenbosch
The Netherlands*

HIS SOURCES

Jheronimus Bosch Art Center

---

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction	11
...A Man like Bosch... Jos Koldeweij	16
Jheronimus Bosch and the Issue of Origins Larry Silver	34
A historical Reconstruction of The Pedlar by Jheronimus Bosch Charlotte Caspers	57
Exotica Herman Colenbrander	73
Jheronimus Bosch's Garden of Delights Triptych, the Eroticism of its central Panel and Middle Dutch Eric De Bruyn	94
Jheronimus Bosch inspired by People in his Environment: Research from the archival Sources Lucas van Dijck	112
Chemical Craft and Spiritual Science in Bosch's St. Anthony Triptych Laurinda Dixon	128
Jheronimus Bosch's Works of Art as allegorical and grotesque Moral; Satire – theological, pastoral and didactic Sources Stefan Fischer	145
Class, Gender, and the Influence of penitential Literature in Bosch's Depictions of Sin Laura Gelfand	159

---

On three Drawings by Jheronimus Bosch: The Field has Eyes, the Wood has Ears, The Treeman, The Owl's Nest	175
Matthijs IJssink
Microarchitecture circa 1500 as Model of the Sacred	191
Ethan Matt Kavalier
Sins of the Flesh and human Folly; A Study of The Ship of Fools by Jheronimus Bosch	210
Blandine Landau
The crucified female Saint in Venice	232
Caterina Limentani Viridis
Bosch and Dracontius' De Creatione Mundi Hexameron	246
Fernando Marías
A moralized semi-secular Triptych by Jheronimus Bosch	265
Yona Pinson
Bosch and the Influence of Flemish Book Illumination	281
Erwin Pokorný
Baldass was right - The Chronology of the Paintings of Jheronimus Bosch	296
Bernard Vermet
Jheronimus Bosch and the Symbolism of Tarot Cards	321
Bohumil Vurm	