The Early Modern
Italian Domestic Interior, 1400–1700

Objects, Spaces, Domesticities

Edited by
Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller and Elizabeth Carroll Consavari

ASHGATE
Contents

Illustrations vii
Notes on Contributors ix
Acknowledgments xiii

Introduction: Early Modern Domesticities:
Integrating People, Spaces, Objects 1
Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, and Elizabeth Carroll Consavari

Part I  Domesticities

1 “Uno palaço belíssimo”:
Town and Country Living in Renaissance Bologna 19
Catherine Fletcher

2 From Padua to Rome:
Pietro Bembo’s Mobile Objects and Convivial Interiors 33
Susan Nalezyty

3 “A casa con i Sirani”: A Successful Family Business and Household in Early Modern Bologna 47
Adelina Modesti

Part II  People, Spaces, and Objects

4 Parenting in the Palazzo:
Images and Artifacts of Children in the Italian Renaissance Home 67
Stephanie R. Miller
The Venetian Portego: Family Piety and Public Prestige
Margaret A. Morse

Art and Family Viewers in the Seventeenth-Century Bolognese Domestic Interior
Erin J. Campbell

Part III Domestic Objects and Sociability

Chi vuol esser lieto, sia:
Objects of Entertainment in the Tornabuoni Palace in Florence
Maria DePrano

Il mare di pittura: Domestic Pictures and Sociability in the Late Sixteenth-Century Venetian Interior
Elizabeth Carroll Consavari

Let’s Eat: Kitchens and Dining in the Renaissance Palazzo and Country Estate
Katherine A. McIver

Silk-Clad Walls and Sleeping Cupids:
A Documentary Reconstruction of the Living Quarters of Lucrezia Borgia, Duchess of Ferrara
Allyson Burgess Williams

“All that is Seen”:
Ritual and Splendor at the Montefeltro Court in Urbino
Jennifer D. Webb

Part IV Objectifying the Domestic Interior

Objectifying the Domestic Interior:
Domestic Furnishings and the Historical Interpretation of the Italian Renaissance Interior
Adriana Turpin

Recreating the Renaissance Domestic Interior:
A Case Study of One Museum’s Approach to the Period Room
Susan E. Wegner

Selected Bibliography

Index