

SHARING IS CARING

Openness and sharing in the cultural heritage sector

Editor

Merete Sanderhoff

Contributors

Michael Peter Edson · Merete Sanderhoff · Jill Cousins
Martin von Haller Grønбæk · Henrik Jarl Hansen
Christian Ertmann-Christiansen · Tobias Golodnoff
Miriam Lerkenfeld · Lars Lundqvist · Jacob R. Wang
Shelley Bernstein · Sarah Giersing · Lise Sattrup
Nana Bernhardt · Jasper Visser · Nanna Holdgaard
Bjarki Valtysson · Ditte Laursen · Lars Ulrich Tarp Hansen
Theis Vallø Madsen · Lene Krogh Jeppesen · Peter Leth

Statens Museum for Kunst, Copenhagen

Table of Contents

Foreword 9

Boom 12

Michael Peter Edson

This belongs to you 20

On openness and sharing at Statens Museum for Kunst

Merete Sanderhoff

1. Inventing the digital wheel 20
2. A wealth of opportunities 31
3. Images and access 38
4. SMK digital 1.0 41
5. Art history on the Internet's terms 44
6. Free image sharing now! 53
7. The birth of "Sharing is Caring" 62
8. It's your cultural heritage. Use it. 68
9. Opportunities arise 89
10. A fully digital museum? 102
11. Notes 114
12. Literature and sources 126

Building a commons for digital cultural heritage 132

Jill Cousins

GLAMourous remix 141

Openness and sharing for cultural institutions

Martin von Haller Grønnebæk

Towards a shared Danish infrastructure for collection management and presentation 154

Henrik Jarl Hansen and Christian Ertmann-Christiansen,

Digitising the Danish Broadcasting
Corporation's archives 161

– an innovation project

Tobias Golodnoff and Miriam Lerkenfeld

Open data at the Swedish National Heritage Board 169

Lars Lundqvist

Digital cultural heritage 178

Long perspectives and sustainability

Jacob R. Wang

GO 186

Curating with the Brooklyn community

Shelley Bernstein

Sharing authority 199

User-generated images as future cultural heritage?

Sarah Giersing

Museums and cultural institutions as spaces for Cultural Citizenship 207

Nana Bernhardt and Lise Sattrup

The future of museums is about attitude, not technology 212

Jasper Visser

Perspectives on participation in social media 221

Nanna Holdgaard and Bjarki Valtysson

Meeting the visitor 226

Dissemination of mobile guides at the museum front desk

Ditte Laursen

How to ride the digital wave 232

Lars Ulrich Tarp Hansen

Sharing is Avant-Garde 239

Theis Vallø Madsen

@skattefar 244

Towards a public authority at eye level

Lene Krogh Jeppesen

Open licenses, open learning 251

Peter Leth

About the authors 256

Image licenses 264