Preface
Acknowledgments
Apology: A Brief for the Bourgeois Virtues
Exordium: The Good Bourgeois
Narratio: How Ethics Fell
Probatio A: Modern Capitalism Makes Us Richer
Probatio B: And Lets Us Live Longer
Probatio C: And Improves Our Ethics
Refutatio: Anticapitalism Is Bad for Us
Peroratio
The Very Word "Virtue"
The Very Word "Bourgeois"
On Not Being Spooked by the Word "Bourgeois"
The Christian and Feminine Virtues: Love
The First Virtue: Love Profane and Sacred
Love and the Transcendent
Sweet Love vs. Interest
Bourgeois Economists against Love
Love and the Bourgeoisie
The Christian and Feminine Virtues: Faith and Hope
Faith as Identity
Hope and Its Banishment
Against the Sacred
Van Gogh and the Transcendent Profane
Humility and Truth
Economic Theology
The Pagan and Masculine Virtues: Courage, with Temperance
The Good of Courage
Anachronistic Courage in the Bourgeoisie
Taciturn Courage against the "Feminine"
Bourgeois vs. Queer
Balancing Courage
Prudence Is a Virtue
The Monomania of Immanuel Kant
The Storied Character of Virtue
Evil as Imbalance, Inner and Outer: Temperance and Justice
The Pagan-Ethical Bourgeois
Systematizing the Seven Virtues
The System of the Virtues
A Philosophical Psychology?