Introduction
Prologue: On the Edge of the Twentieth Century  p. 1
From the Ghetto and Beyond, 1890-1930
The Paradox of Immigration  p. 3
Autobiographies of Alienation and Assimilation
Among the Americans
"Uptown" Women and Social and Spiritual Reform  p. 40
A Witness for Religion
Withholding Sisterhood
Radical Politics and Labor Organizing  p. 73
A New World Upon the Earth
Bread and More Roses
The Dream of a Jewish Homeland  p. 98
The Zion in Your Hearts
Pioneer Woman
Wider Worlds, 1930-1960
Jewish Women in Popular Culture  p. 136
Red Hot Mamas, Iron Women, and Sob Sisters
The Most Famous Jew in the World
Pioneers in the Professions  p. 176
Teacherly Love
Prophetic Justice and Celebrity Zionism
Entering the Theatres of the World  p. 203
Fighting Fascism, Building a State
Writers, War, and Witness
Imagining Jewish Mothers  p. 233
Cold War Comedies and Tragedies
Creating a Jewish Women's History
Probing the Tradition: Feminism and Judaism, 1960-1996
Feminist Liberations  p. 259
First Mothers
The Next Great Moment in History Is theirs
Coming Out as Jewish Women  p. 285
The Feminist Assault on the Academy and Religion
No Longer "Split at the Root"
Out of Exile  p. 309
Toward Yavneh
The Jewish Edge
Musical Midrash
Journey Through Darkness