List of Illustrations
Preface
Acronyms and Abbreviations
Introduction And Framework of the Study
The Arab Uprising of 2011: How Did We Get There?
Cross-Regional Variation in the Arab Uprisings
A Political Economy Framework
The Three Pillars of the Framework: The State, the Economy, and Society
Resource Endowments and Political Development
Prolonged Discontent: Toward a Political Economy of the Arab Uprisings
The Role of Political Islam in the Arab Uprisings
Conclusions
Economic Performance and Social Outcomes
Long-Term Growth with Modest Results
Three Phases of Development
The Inheritance from the Past: The Effects of Fiscal Retrenchment
Social Outcome
Conclusions: Performance Since the Revolutions and the Economic Challenges Ahead
Political Regimes in the Middle East
Economies, Political Regimes, and Governance in the Middle East
The Historical Foundations of State-Building in the Middle East
Political Regimes in the Post-Independence Middle East
Conclusions
The Impact of Demographic Change
Comparative Demographic Patterns
The Economic Consequences of Demographic Change
How Labor Markets Adjusted in the Face of Large Population Growth
The Politics of Young Populations
Conclusion
Human Capital: Health and Education
Social Sectors and Social Services
Health Conditions
Educational Systems
Conclusions
Water And Food Security
The Food Gap
Policy Constraints on Output Growth
Water and the Imperative of a New Food Security Strategy
Conclusions
The Rise And Fall Of State-Led Development