

Preface

The Potential of Narrative and Experiential Approaches in Multicultural Inquiries

Personal Narrative, Community Narrative and the African American Experience

Examining School-Community Connections Through Stories

Black Women Writing Autobiography: Autobiography in Multicultural Education

Latina/Latino Communities, Families, and Children

Being Educated in the Absence of Multiculturalism

Between the Telling and the Told: Latina Mothers Negotiate Education in New Borderlands

Social Justice, Equality and the Education of Native Americans

White Teachers, Native Students: Rethinking Culture-Based Education

Journey Toward Social Justice: Curriculum Change and Educational Equity in a Navajo Community

Multicultural Teacher Education in International Contexts

Teachers as Transformative Healers: Struggles With the Complexities of the Democratic Sphere

How is Education Possible When There's a Body in the Middle of the Room?

Multicultural Perspectives in Teacher Development

Narrative Inquiry in Multicultural Education

The World in My Text: A Quest for Pluralism

The Art of Narrative Inquiry: Embracing Emotion and Seeing Transformation

Democracy, School Life, and Community in Multicultural Societies

Narrative Inquiry Into Multicultural Life in an Inner-City Community School

Creating Communities of Cultural Imagination: Negotiating a Curriculum of Diversity

Narrative and Experiential Approaches to Multiculturalism in Education: Democracy and Education

Index

About the Editors

About the Contributors

Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.