

Foreword : information revolutions and modern postal service
Approaches to the USO under entry	p. 1
Partitioning the mailstream : analysis of an innovative approach to USO	p. 19
From the size of the box to the costs of universal service obligation : a cross-country comparison	p. 37
A welfare analysis of price controls with end-to-end mail and access services	p. 53
Dynamics of downstream entry in postal markets	p. 73
Economies of scale, density and scope in Swiss Post's mail delivery	p. 91
Measuring scale and scope economies with a structural model of postal delivery	p. 103
Efficient worksharing discounts with mail heterogeneity	p. 121
Nonlinear pricing and worksharing in the postal market	p. 135
Efficiency analysis of delivery offices in the postal sector using stochastic frontier and data envelopment analyses	p. 149
Economic analysis of the efficiency of royal mail units and the implications for regulatory policy	p. 165
From theory to practice : vertical relations in the French postal market	p. 183
Postal deregulation and its impact on postal workers : a Canadian union perspective	p. 203
First steps towards new postal economics models for developing countries : learning from the Latin American experience	p. 217
The postal technology market and effects on purchasing strategy	p. 237
Economics of the U.S. Postal Service alternate access retail channels	p. 257
USO public financing at the crossroad between the "Monti package" and the forthcoming reform of the postal directive	p. 277
Scenarios of mail receipt patterns across generations	p. 293
Microanalyses of mail demand drivers for large business customers	p. 307
Measuring the impact of direct mail on the brand	p. 327
Consumer preferences and last mile pricing in the postal sector	p. 343
Microeconomic demand modelling for price elasticities	p. 357
U.S. postal services as composite goods with hedonic properties	p. 369
Table of Contents provided by Blackwell's Book Services and R.R. Bowker. Used with permission.	