Preface p. VII
Background History of the Volume p. XXII
On the Contributions Contained in This Volume p. XXV
List of Figures and Tables p. XXIX
Notes on Contributors p. XXX
A Case of Prophecy in Post-imperial Tibet p. 1
Three Dice, Four Faces, and Sixty-Four Combinations: Early Tibetan Dice Divination by the Numbers p. 11
A Preliminary Analysis of Old Tibetan Dice Divination Texts p. 49
Divinations Padampa Did or Did Not Do, or Did or Did Not Write p. 73
Landscaping Time, Timing Landscapes: The Role of Time in the sa dpyad Tradition p. 89
Signs and Portents in Nature and in Dreams: What They Mean and What Can Be Done about Them p. 136
Identifying the Magical Displays of the Lords of the World: The Oneiromancy of the gSal byed byang bu p. 161
Vibhuticandra's Svapnohana and the Examination of Dreams p. 181
Prognosis, Prophylaxis, and Trumps: Comparative Remarks on Several Common Forms of Tibetan Cleromancy p. 198
The Role of Lamyn Gegeen Bio bzang bstan 'dzin rgyal mtshan in the Dissemination of Tibetan Astrology, Divination and Prognostication in Mongolia p. 213
Index