

Lisbet Koerner

Linnaeus:
Nature and Nation

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England

Contents

- Introduction. "To Apply Nature to Economics and Vice Versa" 1
- 1 "A Geography of Nature": Natural Philosophy 14
 - 2 "A Clapper into a Bell": Floral Names 33
 - 3 "The Lapp Is Our Teacher":
Medicine and Ethnography 56
 - 4 "God's Endless Larder": Theology 82
 - 5 "A New World—Pepper, Ginger, Cardamon":
Economic Theory 95
 - 6 "Should Coconuts Chance to Come into My Hands":
Acclimatization Experiments 113
 - 7 "The Lord of All of Sweden's Clams":
A Local Life 140
 - 8 "His Farmers Dressed in Mourning":
The Fate of Linnaeus' Ideas in Sweden 164
- Conclusion. "Without Science Our Herrings Would Still Be Caught by Foreigners": A Local Modernity 187
- Appendix A: Chronology of Linnaeus and Linnaeana 197
- Appendix B: Biographical References 202
- Abbreviations 213
- Notes 215

viii Contents

Works Cited 263

Acknowledgments 283

Index 287