

SOCIOLINGUISTICS

A resource book for students

PETER STOCKWELL

A

B

C

D

London and New York

CONTENTS

Contents cross-referenced	x
List of figures	xii
List of tables	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv

A Introduction: key concepts in sociolinguistics 1

1 A sociolinguistic toolkit	1
2 Accent and dialect	3
3 Register and style	6
4 Ethnicity and multilingualism	8
5 Social class	11
6 Prestige and language loyalty	12
7 Age and gender	15
8 Pidgins and creoles	17
9 New, national and international Englishes	19
10 Politeness and accommodation	21

B Development: studies in language and society 26

1 How to use these studies	26
2 Attitudes to accent variation	27
3 Euphemism and register	30
4 Code-switching in German	32
5 On the football terrace	35
6 The changing prestige of RP	38
7 The reality of genderlects	41
8 Patwa and post-creolisation	43
9 Singlish and new Englishes	46
10 Politeness in mixed-sex conversation	49
11 Standardisation and language change	53
12 Language and education	56
13 Conversation and spoken discourse	58
14 Language and ideology	61

C Exploration: data for investigation 65

1 How to use the data in this section	65
2 Dialectal variation	69
3 Register	72

4	Ethnology	77
5	Sociological variation	79
6	Prestige	81
7	Gender	84
8	Creole	88
9	New English	90
10	Politeness	93
11	Standardisation	97
12	Educational	99
13	E-discourse	102
14	Ideology	105
D	Extension: sociolinguistic readings	107
1	Sociolinguistics and language change (Hamer)	107
2	Foreign accents in America (Lippi-Green)	114
3	Style and ideology (Fairclough)	128
4	Language contact and code-switching (Edwards)	135
5	The sociolinguist's responsibility (Cameron)	141
6	The process of standardisation (Milroy)	146
7	Men's and women's narratives (Holmes)	160
8	The origins of pidgins and creoles (Wardhaugh)	173
9	World Englishes and contact literature (Kachru)	178
10	Closing turns (Schegloff and Sacks)	189
	Bibliography	200
	Glossarial index	211