

2836-9370

TRAUMATIC ENCOUNTERS

Holocaust Representation and the Hegelian Subject

Paul Eisenstein

State University of New York Press

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1. Holocaust Memory and Hegel	19
2. Obsession and the Meaning of Jewish Rescue: Oskar Schindler as Spirit	73
3. Hysteria as Deferral: The White Hotel and the Idea of Death	95
4. Leverkühn as Witness: The Holocaust in Thomas Mann's Doctor Faustus	119
5. History as/and Paranoia: David Grossman's See Under: Love	143
Conclusion	183
Notes	193
Index	231