

0830 - 8443

From Witches to Crack Moms

Women, Drug Law, and Policy

Susan C. Boyd

CAROLINA ACADEMIC PRESS

Durham, North Carolina

Contents

Introduction	3
Myths and Ideologies	7
A Feminist Sociological Perspective	12
Social Control	14
Social Construction and Feminist Research	17
Sexuality, the Family, and Mothering	20
Chapter 1 Women and Illegal and Legal Drugs	25
Drugs: What are They?	26
A Brief History of Drug Regulation and Women	28
Witch Hunts	29
The Gin Craze	31
Colonization and the Regulation of Altered States of Consciousness	32
The Regulation of Coca	37
Western Drug Use: Women's Use of Opiate Remedies	38
Marijuana and Cocaine Use	40
Women's Drug Use: A Personal Matter	41
Temperance Ideology	42
Ideological Overlap Between the Anti-opiate and Prohibition Movement	44
Contemporary Drug Regulation	45
Drug Regulation since the 1950s	48

Legal Drugs: Tobacco, Alcohol, and Prescribed Drugs	54
Tobacco	54
Alcohol	57
Prescribed Drugs	59
Feminist Research	60
SSRI Prescribing and the Disciplinary Society	63
The Legal/Illegal Divide	65
Advertising and Profit	67
Resistance	69
Contemporary Drug Use Rates	70
Canadian Drug Trends	73
British Drug Trends	73
The Diversity of Drug Use	74
Chapter 2 The Medical, Legal, and Moral Regulation Of Women	79
The Regulation of Reproduction	79
Medicalization	82
A Social Model of Health	84
Pregnancy and Drugs	87
Maternal Drug Use and Infant Doping:
A Historical Perspective	88
Identifying Pregnant Women Who
Use Drugs and Drug Testing	92
Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome	95
Cocaine and Pregnancy	96
Narcotics and Pregnancy	97
Tobacco and Pregnancy	97
Alcohol Use and Pregnancy	98
Marijuana and Cultural Factors	103
Risk Categories	105
The Criminalization of Pregnancy:
Maternal-State Conflicts	106
Civil Child Welfare Law	110

Nongovernment Initiatives	116
Alternative Maternity Services	116
Glasgow	117
Liverpool	118
Manchester	119
Resistance in the U.S.	121
Conclusion	122
Chapter 3 Welfare Regulation of Women	125
Welfare Regulation	125
Fitness to Parent	128
Welfare Reform in the U.S.	131
Women Regulating Women	134
Women, Welfare, and Illegal Drugs in the U.S.	135
Section 15	138
HUD Housing	140
Welfare in Canada	142
Sunny Hill Hospital	147
Apprehension of the Fetus	149
Welfare and Illegal Drug Use in Britain	150
Conclusion	153
Chapter 4 A Sociological Perspective of Drug Use And Treatment	155
Historical Background	156
Alternative Views	160
Negative Drug Use	162
Feminism and Drug Treatment	167
Women's Experience of Treatment
in North America	169
Treatment Goals	171

The Drug Treatment Industry and Diversity	174
Harm Reduction	175
Alternative-Treatment Options	180
Drug Courts	184
History of the Drug Courts	185
Cost Effectiveness of Drug Courts	186
Gender and Cultural Factors	187
Widening the Net of Social Control	189
Drug Courts in Canada	191
Coerced-Treatment Replaces Voluntary-Treatment Options	195
Conclusion	200
Chapter 5 Women in Conflict with the Law	203
Arrest Rates and Imprisonment of Women in Britain, Canada, and the U.S.	204
Women in Britain	204
Women in Canada	206
Women in the U.S.	208
Conflict with the Law	212
Women, Prostitution, and Drug Dealing	212
Racial Profiling	217
Gendered Drug Law in the U.S.	219
Drug Conspiracy and Drug Couriers	219
Plea Bargaining	222
Asset Seizures and the Impact on Women	223
Drug War Refugees	225
Prison and the Regulation of Women	227
The Emergence of the Prison	228
The War on Drugs and the Restructuring of Prisons	230
Search Teams	230

Drug Testing in Prison	231
Health Care and Legal Drugging	235
Drug Treatment	238
HIV and Prison	242
Methadone in Prison	244
Pregnancy and the Use of Restraints	247
Mothering	248
Tearing Apart the Family and Community, and Visiting Prisons	254
Release	257
Further Obstacles	259
The Prison Industry	262
Resistance	264
Chapter 6 U.S. International Policy and the War in Colombia	267
U.S. and CIA Intervention and International Drug Policy	268
Narcoterrorism	272
United States Federal Drug Policy	275
The Civil War in Colombia	278
Plan Colombia	282
The Displacement of Indigenous Peoples	287
Women's Resistance to Violence in Colombia	291
Further Justification for Foreign Intervention	299
Victim Nation	302
Chapter 7 Road to Social Justice Legalization	305
References	309
Index	361