

2841-3792

Drug Induced

Addiction and Treatment in Perspective

Phil Harris

Russell House Publishing

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Foreword	vi
Introduction: Biology or Belief?	1
Chapter 1: A Very Brief History of Addiction Treatment	7
Chapter 2: Of Mice and Men	17
Chapter 3: The Myth of Overdose	27
Chapter 4: Engineering Genetics	33
Chapter 5: The Binds that Tie	41
Chapter 6: Natural Born Quitters	49
Chapter 7: The Apprenticeship for Life	59
Chapter 8: Well Intentioned Change	73
Chapter 9: Counselling, Outcomes and Other Sacred Cows	85
Chapter 10: Ignition of Change	95
Chapter 11: The Bi-Cycle of Change: A New Perspective for Treatment of Dual Diagnosis	103
Chapter 12: Keep Taking the Tablets: Relapse in Dual Diagnosis	111
Chapter 13: Project Match or Project Mess?: Equalising Factors in the Largest Treatment Study Ever	121
Chapter 14: Better than Well: Taking Prozac Seriously	127
Bibliography	135