

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1. Forced Labor in Nazi Germany and the Nazi-Occupied Areas	9
2. The Forced-Labor System in Eastern Upper Silesia: The Establishment of Organization Schmelt (1940–1944)	38
3. Forced-Labor Camps for Jews in Lower Silesia and the Sudetenland (1940–1944)	53
4. Phases in the Development of the Gross-Rosen Main Camp (May 1940–October 1943)	68
5. The First Subcamps of Gross-Rosen	88
6. Deploying the Network of Camps	95
7. Labor Camps in the Sudetenland	110
8. Code Riese: The Führer's Secret Operation in the Eulen Mountains	119
9. Administration of the Gross-Rosen Labor-Camp Complex	131
10. Survival in the Gross-Rosen Labor Camps	142
11. Women in the Gross-Rosen Labor Camps	161
12. Cultural and Spiritual Life in the Gross-Rosen Labor Camps	174
13. The Last to Be Liberated	188
14. Liberation	219

Concluding Remarks	231
Appendix: Labor Camps for Jews in the Gross-Rosen Network	241
Notes	243
Sources	270
Index	282