

RA
D
I
C
A
L

IDENTITY, CITIZENSHIP, AND THE STATE

E M O C R A C Y

EDITED BY

David Trend

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

GENEALOGIES OF RADICAL DEMOCRACY 5

1. Democracy's Crisis of Meaning 7
David Trend
2. Radical Democracy or Liberal Democracy? 19
Chantal Mouffe
3. From Identity Politics to Social Feminism: 27
A Plea for the Nineties
Seyla Benhabib
4. Can the Subaltern Vote? Radical Democracy, 42
Discourses of Representation and Rights,
and Questions of Race
Amarpal K. Dhaliwal
5. Taking it to the Streets: 62
Radical Democracy and Radicalizing Theory
J. Peter Euben

DEBATING RADICAL POLITICS IN THE UNITED STATES 79

6. Towards Radicalism: 81
The Death and Rebirth of the American Left
Stanley Aronowitz
7. Reviving Democratic Activism: 102
Thoughts about Strategy in a Dark Time
Richard Flacks
8. Let's Get Radical: 117
Why Should the Right Have All the Fun?
Ellen Willis
9. A Foreign Policy for Radical Democrats 123
Bogdan Denitch

10. Radical Democracy and Cultural Politics: 127
 What about Class? What about Political Power?
 Barbara Epstein
11. Identity and Democracy: 140
 A Critical Perspective
 Eli Zaretsky
12. A New American Socialism 146
 Manning Marable
13. Imagine There's No Heaven: 157
 Radical Politics in an Age of Reaction
 Michael Omi and Howard Winant
14. Culture Wars and Identity Politics: 165
 The Religious Right and the Cultural Politics of Homosexuality
 Jeffrey Escoffier
15. Pedagogy and Radical Democracy 179
 in the Age of "Political Correctness"
 Henry A. Giroux

RADICAL DEMOCRACY AND POLITICAL POSSIBILITY 195

16. Equality, Difference, and Radical Democracy: 197
 The United States Feminist Debates Revisited
 Nancy Fraser
17. A Dialogue on Democracy 209
 Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak and David Plotke
18. The Era of Abundance 223
 Barbara Ehrenreich
19. Representation and Democracy 228
 An Interview
 bell hooks and David Trend

Contributors 237