Communication Development and Disorders in African American Children
Research, Assessment, and Intervention

Edited by
Alan G. Kamhi, Ph.D.
Karen E. Pollock, Ph.D.
Joyce L. Harris, Ph.D.

University of Memphis
Memphis, Tennessee
Contents

Contributors .......................................................... vii
Foreword  Orlando L. Taylor and Debra M. Garrett ......................... ix
For the Reader ......................................................... xiii
Acknowledgments ...................................................... xv
Introduction ............................................................ xix

1  The Challenges of Conducting Language Research with African American Children
Holly K. Craig ...................................................... 1

2  Issues in Recruiting African American Participants for Research
Joyce L. Harris ................................................... 19

3  Issues in Assessing the Language Abilities of African American Children
Julie A. Washington ........................................... 35

4  The Importance of Psychological and Sociocultural Factors for Providing Clinical Services to African American Children
Sandra L. Terrell and Francis Terrell .............................. 55

5  Issues in Service Delivery to African American Children
Lynda R. Campbell ........................................... 73

6  Acquisition of the African American English Copula
Toya A. Wyatt .................................................. 95

7  Phonological Development and Disorders in African American Children
Ida J. Stockman .................................................. 117
CONTENTS

8 Orofacial, Physiological, and Acoustical Characteristics: Implications for the Speech of African American Children
Marlene B. Salas-Provance .................................................. 155

9 Vocabulary Development and Disorders in African American Children
Julia Mount-Weitz ................................................................. 189

10 Narratives of Young African American Children
Eva Jackson Hester ............................................................... 227

11 Using Oral Narratives to Assess Communicative Competence
Yvette D. Hyter and Carol E. Westby ..................................... 247

12 Cultural Influences on Language: Implications for Assessing African American Children
April Massey ................................................................. 285

13 Written Language Abilities of African American Children and Youth
Cheryl M. Scott and Lisa M. Rogers ..................................... 307

14 Assessment, Intervention, and Pedagogical Issues with Older African American Children and Youth
Wanda K. Mitchener-Colston ............................................ 333

Afterword Anna F. Vaughn-Cooke ....................................... 351

Index .................................................................................. 355