Contents

1. Introduction: The what, where, when and why of Grooved Ware
   by Rosamund Cleal ................................................................. 1

Regional surveys

2. Grooved Ware from the Upper Thames Region
   by Alistair Barclay .................................................................. 9

3. Irish Grooved Ware
   by Anna Brindley ................................................................. 23

4. Grooved Ware of the Avebury Area: styles, contexts and meanings
   by Michael Hamilton and Alasdair Whittle ......................... 36

5. Grooved Ware from Scotland: A Review
   by Trevor Cowie and Ann MacSween ................................. 48

   by T. G. Manby ..................................................................... 57

Grooved Ware in context

7. Rock carvings and Neolithic artefacts on Ilkley Moor, West Yorkshire
   by Gavin Edwards and Richard Bradley ......................... 76

8. Grooved Ware and timber circles
   by Alex Gibson .................................................................. 78

9. The Folkton Drums unpicked
   by Ian Longworth ................................................................. 83

Grooved Ware from excavations

10. A Grooved Ware pit group and Bronze Age multiple inhumation
    at Hendre, Rhymwyn, Flintshire
    by Kenneth Brassil and Alex Gibson .................................. 89

11. Grooved Ware from Brugh na Boinne and its wider context
    by George Eogan and Helen Roche .................................. 98

12. Grooved Ware from the Links of Noltland, Westray, Orkney
    by Alison Sheridan ............................................................... 112

13. Grooved Ware pottery from Stoneyfield, Raigmore, Inverness
    by Derek Simpson ................................................................. 125

The dating of Grooved Ware

14. Sequence and dating in the Grooved Ware tradition
    by Anna Brindley ................................................................. 133

15. Grooved Ware in Southern Britain. Chronology and interpretation
    by Paul Garwood ................................................................. 145

Grooved Ware Gazetteer

Compiled by Ian Longworth and Rosamund Cleal ....................... 177