

Faith in the Market

Religion and the Rise of Urban Commercial Culture

---

Edited by

John M. Giggie and Diane Winston

Rutgers University Press

New Brunswick, New Jersey, and London

Contents

---

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction Hidden in Plain Sight: Religion and Urban Commercial Culture in Modern North America 1
John M. Giggie and Diane Winston

Part I Evangelical Experimentation

---

One Living in the Material World: Salvation Army Lassies and Urban Commercial Culture, 1880–1918 13
Diane Winston

Two Protestant Visual Culture and the Challenges of Urban America during the Progressive Era 37
David Morgan

Three The Best Show in Town: Carry Nation and the Selling of Temperance in the Urban Northeast 57
Fran Grace

Four New York, the New Babylon? Fundamentalism and the Modern City in Reverend Straton's Jazz Age Crusade 74
J. Terry Todd

Part II Protestant Transformation

---

Five Building California's Past: Mission Revival Architecture and Regional Identity 91
Roberto Lint Sagarena

Six Christian Science Architecture in the American City: The Triumph of the Classical Style 108
Paul E. Ivey

- Seven* Banned in Boston: Commercial Culture and the Politics of Moral Reform in Boston during the 1920s 133
P. C. Kemeny

Part III Minority Adaptation

---

- Eight* “Saturday Sinners and Sunday Saints”: The Nightclub
as Moral Menace in 1940s Race Movies 155
Judith Weisenfeld
- Nine* “In Vogue with Mary”: How Catholic Girls Created an Urban Market for Modesty 177
Kathryn Jay
- Ten* Nation Time: Black Islam and African American Cultural Politics, 1955–1970 199
Melani McAlister
- Eleven* Beyond Borscht: The Kosher Lifestyle and the Religious Consumerism of Suburban Orthodox Jews 227
Etan Diamond
- Contributors 247
Index 249