

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY IN NEW ZEALAND:
CONTEMPORARY SOCIAL RESEARCH

edited by
Michael Lloyd

The Dunmore Press Limited

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction Michael Lloyd	9
1 Workers' Compensation Grant Duncan	19
2 From the 'Balksanisation of Control' to Employer Management Systems: OHS policy and politics in New Zealand 1981-1992 John Wren	43
3 Relationships and Dependencies between OSH, ACC and Employer Clients Virginia Baker	67
4 Occupational Health and Safety in Small Businesses Felicity Lamm	93
5 The Rights and Obligations of Employees in Occupational Health and Safety Law in New Zealand Joanna Cullinane, Michael Pye and Mark Harcourt	119
6 Where is Safety Knowledge? Michael Lloyd and Katrina Roen	135

7	Resolving Work and Health Controversies Kevin Dew	159
8	Bodies on the Floor: Representation, Existence, and Involvement in the Tranz Rail Ministerial Inquiry Tamika Simpson	177
	Index	199
	Contributors	203