UNDER THE CANOPY

The Archaeology of Tropical Rain Forests

Edited by Julio Mercader

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY PRESS
New Brunswick, New Jersey, and London
Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: The Paleolithic Settlement of Rain Forests 1
Julio Mercader

PART I

African Pioneers

CHAPTER 1: The Archaeology of West Africa from the Pleistocene to the Mid-Holocene 35
Joanna Casey

CHAPTER 2: The Middle Stone Age Occupation of Atlantic Central Africa: New Evidence from Equatorial Guinea and Cameroon 64
Julio Mercader and Raquel Marti

CHAPTER 3: Foragers of the Congo: The Early Settlement of the Ituri Forest 93
Julio Mercader

PART II

Australasian Settlers

CHAPTER 4: Hunter-Gatherer Occupation of the Malay Peninsula from the Ice Age to the Iron Age 119
F. David Bulbeck

CHAPTER 5: More Than a Million Years of Human Occupation in Insular Southeast Asia: The Early Archaeology of Eastern and Central Java 161
Francois Sémah, Anne-Marie Sémah, and Truman Simanjuntak

CHAPTER 6: An Archaeological Assessment of Rain Forest Occupation in Northeast Queensland, Australia 191
Brit Asmussen
PART III
The Last Frontier: Newcomers in a New World

CHAPTER 7: Late Glacial and Early Holocene Occupation of Central American Tropical Forests 219
Anthony J. Ranere and Richard G. Cooke

CHAPTER 8: Holocene Climate and Human Occupation in the Orinoco 249
William P. Barse

CHAPTER 9: Archaeological Hunter-Gatherers in Tropical Forests: A View from Colombia 271
Santiago Mora and Cristóbal Gnecco

CHAPTER 10: Hunter-Gatherers in Amazonia during the Pleistocene-Holocene Transition 291
Betty J. Meggers and Eurico Th. Miller

Contributors  317
Index  319