Frank Sinatra
Contents

Acknowledgments
ix

List of Illustrations

Introduction

1. Longing, Loss, and Nostalgia
   Stanislao G. Pugliese

   3

Part One. History and Politics

2. Frank Sinatra and the American Century
   Douglas Brinkley

   17

3. Frank Sinatra’s House: Pride, Passion, and Politics
   Joseph Dorinson

   23

4. Frank Sinatra and Civil Rights
   Leonard Mustazza

   33

5. Frank Sinatra and Presidential Politics
   Michael Nelson

   47

Part Two. Identity and Representation

6. Why the Bobby Soxers?
   Janice L. Booker

   73

7. Playing the “Big Room”: Frank Sinatra, the Fontainebleu Hotel, and the Architecture of Inclusion
   Gaspar González

   83

8. Someone to Watch over Him: Images of Class and Gender Vulnerability in Early Sinatra
   Rob Jacklosky

   91
9. State of Grace: Frank Sinatra and American Charisma
   T. H. Adamowski

   Part Three. A Riff on Italian American Culture

10. Sinatra at the Table: Scenes from Patsy’s Restaurant
    Joe Scognamillo and Sal Scognamillo

11. Mammissimo: Dolly and Frankie Sinatra and the Italian American Mother/Son Thing
    John Gennari

12. Urbane Villager
    Thomas J. Ferraro

13. Passing for Italian:
    Crooners and Gangsters in Crossover Culture
    John Gennari

14. Sinatra, the Name Ending in a Vowel, or, “The Voice” as Signifier and Symptom of Italian Americanness
    Pellegrino A. D’Acierno

15. I Get No Kick from Assimilation, or, “My” Frank Sinatra Problem
    Rocco Marinaccio

   Coda

16. Prophet, Padrone, Postmodern Prometheus:
    Moral Images of Sinatra in Contemporary Culture
    Edmund N. Santurri

Works Cited

Contributors

Index