Latino Los Angeles

Transformations, Communities, and Activism

Edited by Enrique C. Ochoa and Gilda L. Ochoa

The University of Arizona Press  Tucson
Contents

1. Latina/o Los Angeles in Context
   Enrique C. Ochoa and Gilda L. Ochoa  3

Part I: Globalization and Latina/o Migration to Los Angeles

2. Indispensable Migrants: Mexican Workers and the Making of Twentieth-Century Los Angeles
   Martin Valadez Torres  23
3. Perilous Passage: Central American Migration through Mexico
   Edur Velasco Arregui and Richard Roman  38
4. Why Women Migrate: Salvadoran and Guatemalan Women in Los Angeles
   Kristine M. Zentgraf  63
   Myrna Cherkoss Donahoe  83

Part II: Settlement and (Re)Constructing Identities and Communities

6. Indigenous Mexican Migrants in a Modern Metropolis: The Reconstruction of Zapotec Communities in Los Angeles
   Daniel Melero Malpica  111
7. Two Sides of the Same Coin? The Relationship between Socioeconomic Assimilation and Entrepreneurship among Mexicans in Los Angeles
   Zulema Valdez  137
8. The Formation and Transformation of Salvadoran Community Organizations in Los Angeles
   Susan Bibler Coutin  155
9. Negotiating Latinidade in Los Angeles: The Case of Brazilian Immigrants
   Bernadete Beserra  178
    Anulkah Thomas  197

Part III: Labor Organizing and Political Activism

    Maria A. Gutierrez de Soldatenko  225

13. Organizing Immigrant Workers: Action Research and Strategies in the Pomona Day Labor Center José Z. Calderón, Suzanne F. Foster, and Silvia L. Rodríguez  278

Review of Contemporary Latina/o Scholarship and Resources

14. Latinos in Los Angeles: Select Review of Latino/a Scholarship and Resources Ester E. Hernández  303

Contributors  319

Index  323