Marcin Krygier (ed.)

Of fair speche,
and of fair answere

Assistant to the editor:
Ewa Ciszek
Contents

1. Elżbieta Adamczyk (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań)
   pære nihtē or pæs nihtēs? On the interplay of gender shift and declension shift in Old English ................................. 7

2. Michael Bilynсьky (Ivan Franko National University of Lviv)
   The chronological width in the OED reconstruction of Middle English verbs and derivatives ............................................. 37

3. Artur Bartnik (Catholic University of Lublin)
   Dative resumptive pronouns in Old English pe relatives .................. 61

4. Jerzy Nykiel (University of Silesia)
   Andrzej M. Łęcki (Pedagogical University of Cracow)
   Toward a diachronic account of English prepositional subordinators expressing purpose: To the intent that ........................................... 75

5. Magdalena Bator (Academy of Management, Warsaw)
   The semantic field TASTE in Old and Middle English .................... 89