AMBER COMMITTEE OF THE INTERNATIONAL UNION OF PREHISTORIC AND PROTOHISTORIC SCIENCES
ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF BALTIC STUDIES INSTITUTE OF THE HISTORY OF LATVIA,
UNIVERSITY OF LATVIA

AMBER IN ARCHAEOLOGY

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FOURTH
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON AMBER IN ARCHAEOLOGY
TALSI 2001

RIGA 2003
CONTENTS

List of Participants .............................................................. 7

Opening Address by the President of the Republic of Latvia Vaira Vīķe-Freiberga ............... 9

Preface by Prof. Dr. Joan M. Todd ........................................... 11

I. THE CHEMISTRY OF AMBER

Curt W. Beck, Edith C. Stout, Karen M. Wovkulich
The Chemistry of Sicilian Amber (Simetite) .................................. 17

II. THE EAST BALTIC AREA

Valdis Bērziņš
Amberworking as a Specialist Occupation at the Sārnate Neolithic Site, Latvia ........................................ 34

Audrone Bluviene
Lithuanian Amber Artifacts from the Roman Iron Age to Early Medieval Times ....................................................... 47

Ilze Loze
Middle Neolithic Amber Workshops in the Lake Lubāns Depression ......................... 72

Ēvalds Mugurevičs
Viking Age and Medieval Finds of East Baltic Amber in Latvia and the Neighbouring Countries (9th–16th Century) .......................... 90

Mirja Ots
Stone Age Amber Finds in Estonia ........................................... 96

Iga Zagorska
The ‘Gold Coast’ of the Gulf of Riga ......................................... 106

III. NORTHERN EUROPE

Tony Axelsson, Anders Strinnholm
Beads of Belonging and Tokens of Trust. Neolithic Amber Beads from Megaliths in Sweden ....................................................... 116

Bente Magnus
The Importance of Amber in the Viking Period in the Nordic Countries ......................................................... 126

Berta Stjernquist
A Grave of a Noble Iron Age Woman with Many Amber Beads in Järrestad, South-East Sweden .............................................. 139

IV. EASTERN EUROPE

Maja Zimina
Amber Ornaments from the Konchanskii Burial Grounds .......................... 149
V. CENTRAL EUROPE

Jan Bouzek
The Central European Amber Route During the La Tène and Early Imperial Times .................................................. 156
Janusz Czebreszuk
Amber on the Threshold of a World Career ........................................... 164

Colette du Gardin
Amber Spacer Beads in the Neolithic and Bronze Ages in Europe .............. 180

Klára Marková, Anna Tirpáková, Dagmar Markechová
The Social Ranking of Graves with Amber during the Early Bronze Age in West Slovakia ........................................... 198

Emma Sprincz
Amber Artifacts of Hungary from Middle Bronze Age to the Hungarian Conquest (from 1600 BC to 896 AD) ......................... 203

VI. BALKANS AND MEDITERRANEAN

Aleksandar Palavestra
A Composite Amber Jewelry Set from Novi Pazar .................................. 213

Joan M. Todd
When Amber Speaks: the Archaeological Evidence and the Historical Record ......................................................... 224

VII. BIBLIOGRAPHY

Helen Hughes-Brock
Amber Beads in Archaeology. Publications since ca. 1993 ...................... 236