

CONTENTS

Preface to third edition	7
I The context of a university library	9
National context – Functions – Government – Finance
II The role of the university librarian	27
Qualifications – University role – Administrative duties – Professional activities – Future role
III University library staff	36
Grades – Structure – Selection – Professional development
IV University library stock	51
Categories of material – Undergraduate collections – Bookshops – Halls of Residence libraries – Departmental libraries – Decentralization – Little-used materials – Special collections – Selection – Size of stock
V Processes and routines	80
General organization – Computerization – Ordering and accessioning – Periodicals recording – Cataloguing – Classification – Binding and preparation – Stocktaking
VI Reader services	105
Borrowing facilities – Issue systems – Access to books – Reference and information services – Subject specialization – Guides – Reader instruction – Photocopying and photographic services – New media – Hours of opening
VII University library buildings	126
Flexibility – Entrance area – Processing departments – Space for books and places for readers – Planning procedures – Recent developments

VIII Co-operation	137
Types of co-operative activity – Inter-library lending –
The British Library – Inter-library study facilities –
Co-operative acquisitions schemes – Transfer of materials
– Regional co-operation – Library research –
Professional associations
List of references	152
Index	159

List of illustrations

- Dust jacket* South Library, University of Leeds
- Frontispiece* Sydney Jones Library, University of Liverpool
- 1 The Library, University College of Wales, Aberystwyth
 - 2 Nottingham University Library
 - 3 Old library and new library, University of Glasgow
 - 4 Edinburgh University Library
 - 5 Reading area, South Library, University of Leeds
 - 6 Reading area, Sussex University Library
 - 7 Reading area, Brynmor Jones Library, University of Hull
 - 8 Counter area, Cardiff University Library
 - 9 Book issue VDU and terminal, Bristol University Library
 - 10 Poetry Room, Brynmor Jones Library, University of Hull