

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction: The Life Course and Social Change in Comparative Perspective Walter R. Heinz	9

I Labour Market Transitions and Life Perspectives of Youth

Labour Markets and the Life Course Patterns of Young Adults in Great Britain David N. Ashton/Johnny Sung	23
The School to Work Transition in Canada: New Risks and Uncertainties Harvey Krahn	43
New Patterns of Gender Identity in Youth? Or Old Ones Reconstructed? Claire Wallace	71
Contesting the Meaning of Skill in Clerical Training Jane Gaskell	91
Life Perspectives of Adolescents Manuela du Bois-Reymond/Erwin van Rooijen/Harry Guit	107

II The Life Course of Women between Family and Labour Market

Women's Labour Force Participation in a Changing Socio-Historical Context Angelika Tölke	123
--	-----

Women's Working Lives: Current Labour Market Patterns in Great Britain Jackie West	139
The Family: Space for Self-Development or Privatization of Social Problems? Ursula Müller	169
Couples in the Labour Market: An Analysis of Work Histories in South Wales Susan Yeandle	185
Changing Women's Life Course Patterns in Italy: Gender, Cohort and Social Class Differences Chiara Saraceno	203
 III Life Course Risks and Social Policy
Gatekeeping Experts and the Control of Status Passages Deborah A. Stone	221
The Multiple Responsibilities of Occupational Physicians H. Nico Plomp	233
Divorce and its Consequences: The Distribution of Risk between Women and Men Annemette Sørensen	253
About the Authors	255
Index	