

Contributors	vii
Introduction	1
Carol Smart
1 Disruptive bodies and unruly sex: the regulation of reproduction and sexuality in the nineteenth century	7
Carol Smart
2 Feminist vigilantes of late-Victorian England	33
Lucy Bland
3 Child sexual abuse and the regulation of women: variations on a theme	53
Carol-Ann Hooper
4 Women and late-nineteenth-century social work	78
Jane Lewis
5 Producers of legitimacy: homes for unmarried mothers in the 1950s	100
Martine Spensky
6 Representing childhood: the multiple fathers of the Dionne quintuplets	119
Mariana Valverde
7 Whose property? The double standard of adultery in nineteenth-century law	147
Ursula Vogel
8 Mothers as citizens: feminism, evolutionary theory and the reform of Dutch family law 1870–1910	166
Selma Sevenhuijsen

9 Humanity or justice? Wifebeating and the law in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries	187
Anna Clark
References	207
Index	221