

Contents

Series editors' preface	page ix
Preface	xi

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION 1

Classical accounts of institutional change	4
Contemporary theories of institutional change	9
Rationality and social institutions	13
The outline of this book	19

CHAPTER 2 THE PRIMARY IMPORTANCE OF DISTRIBUTIONAL CONFLICT 21

The benefits of social institutions	22
Rationality and institutional benefits	27
A distributive conception of social institutions	40

CHAPTER 3 INSTITUTIONS AND STRATEGIC CHOICE: INFORMATION, SANCTIONS, AND SOCIAL EXPECTATIONS 48

The complexity of strategic decision making	50
Institutions and social expectations	53
Implications for a theory of social institutions	66
A final clarification	82

Contents

CHAPTER 4
THE SPONTANEOUS EMERGENCE OF SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS: CONTEMPORARY THEORIES OF INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE 84
The logic of evolutionary explanations	85
Evolutionary theories of institutional change	94
Conclusions	122
CHAPTER 5
THE SPONTANEOUS EMERGENCE OF SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS: A BARGAINING THEORY OF EMERGENCE AND CHANGE
	123
Institutional emergence: bargaining and asymmetries of power	126
A comparative analysis: the emergence of rules of property division	151
CHAPTER 6
STABILITY AND CHANGE: CONFLICTS OVER FORMAL INSTITUTIONS
	171
The stability of informal institutions	173
The state and conflicts over formal institutions	188
The strategic choice of institutions: a comparison of effects	195
CHAPTER 7
CONCLUSION
	209
Explanation	209
Justification	212
Research agenda	213
Bibliography	215
Index	231