

---

Contents

---

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	xi
1 Introduction
Roberta Woods	1
x 2 Women and the meaning of home
Jane Darke	11
3 Women and owner occupation in Britain: first the prince, then the palace?
Rose Gilroy	31
4 Women and participation
Marianne Hood and Roberta Woods	58
5 Older women and housing – prospects for the 1990s
Roger Sykes	75
6 Black women and housing
Perminder Dhillon-Kashyap	101
7 Young women and homelessness
Anne Douglas and Rose Gilroy	127
8 ‘The struggle has never been simply about bricks and mortar’: lesbians’ experience of housing
Julia Smailes	152
9 Snakes or ladders? – Women and equal opportunities in education and training for housing
Marion Brion	173

10 Women achievers in housing: the career paths of women chief housing officers
Veronica Coatham and Janet Hale	196
11 Questioning the American dream: recent housing innovations in the United States
Karen A. Franck	226
12 Innovative housing in the UK and Europe
Tom Woolley	247
13 An agenda for action: issues of choice, freedom and control
Rose Gilroy	260
Index	271

---

Illustrations

---

FIGURES

9. 1	The career ladder 1986	175
9. 2	Comparison of the proportion of women at professional and managerial levels in three functions of housing	176
9. 3	Attendance at NFHA chief executives conference 1989-92	178
9. 4	Attendance at NFHA maintenance conference 1989-91	179
11. 1	Neighborhood Women Renaissance Housing in Brooklyn, New York: two-person apartment	231
11. 2	Neighborhood Women Renaissance Housing in Brooklyn, New York: floor plan with swing apartment	232
11. 3	Neighborhood Women Renaissance Housing in Brooklyn, New York: two-family apartment	233
11. 4	Four apartments with toggle care	235
11. 5	Benicia Waterfront Commons, California: floor plan of upper level	241
11. 6	Benicia Waterfront Commons, California: floor plan of lower level	242
12. 1	Cohousing scheme in Roskilde: interior	254
12. 2	Ecological self-build housing project in Hamburg	257

TABLES

2. 1	Who does the work in the home?	15
3. 1	Tenure of male and female heads of household	32

---

3. 2	Home owners by sex and marital status	32
3. 3	Tenants by sex and marital status	33
3. 4	Views of women on home ownership	34
3. 5	Summary of tenure status	37
3. 6	Decisions over the marital home by gender, custodial arrangements and tenure of marital home	38
3. 7	Occupational status and tenure changes of women	40
3. 8	Occupational status and tenure changes of men	41
3. 9	Percentage of adults aged 45–64 caring for family members, other relatives and friends, by sex and marital status	44
3.10	Economic position of men and women heads of household	46
3.11	Women heads of household by tenure and economic position	46
3.12	Employment by sex and full-time or part-time work in the UK	47
3.13	Real weekly earnings in 1991	47
3.14	Percentage of women-headed households of all households by tenure type and district type	48
3.15	Income needed to buy a property in lowest decile band	49
3.16	Right-to-buy purchasers by household type and income group (1985–8) in the Newcastle travel to work area	50
3.17	Comparison of heads of household who have bought local authority accommodation with heads of household in owner-occupied and local authority accommodation: selected characteristics	52
5. 1	Pensioner population profiles 1991	76
5. 2	Pensioner profiles by age 1991	76
5. 3	Female to male population ratios	77
5. 4	People living alone by age and sex	78
5. 5	Housing tenure in Great Britain	78
5. 6	Typology of not rich, not poor	81
5. 7	Income inequalities in older age	82
5. 8	Changes in retirement pensions	82
5. 9	Gross weekly income of all retired people	83
5.10	Weekly household income levels at different ages	83

---

5.11	Distribution of weekly household income by retired household type	84
5.12	Source of income of different retired households	85
5.13	Mean weekly income of elderly men and women with and without occupational pensions	86
5.14	Average earnings of full-time employees	87
5.15	Value of savings and investments of retired men and women	87
5.16	Housing options in old age	90
5.17	Ages of new Anchor tenants January 1990 to June 1992	93
5.18	Weekly household income of Anchor tenants January 1990 to June 1992	93
5.19	Savings levels of new Anchor tenants	94
7. 1	Homeless households found accommodation by local authorities by priority need category	129
7. 2	Local authority inquiries under the homelessness legislation: by outcome	130
7. 3	Number of rough sleepers by gender	133
7. 4	A weekly household budget for a young person on a YTS	140
7. 5	Unemployment rate by age and gender in 1992	140
7. 6	Average gross weekly pay for full-time workers	141
7. 7	The Housing Benefit poverty trap 1994/5	141
7. 8	Affordability rates by region and tenancy type	143
7. 9	Rent affordability in the North East	143
7.10	Average weekly unrebated rent for a one bedroom flat	144
9. 1	Institute of Housing membership	177
9. 2	Questions at institutional level	189
9. 3	Questions at behaviour level	193
9. 4	Questions at content level	194
10. 1	Principal characteristics of old- and new-style directors of housing	201