

---

CONTENTS

Preface      ix

Foreword by William A. Gamson      xi

1	INTRODUCTION	1
	The Constructionist Paradigm	2
	The Case of Crime	3
	Politics and Public Policy	4
	Empirical Evidence	6
	Frame Analysis	9
	What Follows	11
	Notes	11
2	PRELIMINARIES	13
	The Contesting Frames	13
	Media Discourse	17
	Popular Discourse	19
	Notes	27
3	FAULTY SYSTEM	29
	Faulty System in the Op Eds	30
	Leniency	31
	Inefficiency	34
	Faulty System in the Discussions	36
	Supportive Arguments	38
	Rebuttal Arguments	51
	Conclusion	52
	Notes	53

4	SOCIAL BREAKDOWN	55
	Social Breakdown in the Op Eds	56
	Social Breakdown in the Discussions	59
	Supportive Arguments	61
	Rebuttal Arguments	82
	Conclusion	84
	Notes	84
5	BLOCKED OPPORTUNITIES	87
	Blocked Opportunities in the Op Eds	88
	Blocked Opportunities in the Discussions	91
	Supportive Arguments	92
	Rebuttal Arguments	97
	Conclusion	103
6	MEDIA VIOLENCE AND RACIST SYSTEM	105
	Media Violence in the Op Eds	106
	Media Violence in the Discussions	107
	Racist System in the Op Eds	109
	Racist System in the Discussions	112
	Conclusion	123
	Note	124
7	RESOURCE STRATEGIES AND FRAME PERFORMANCES: A CONSTRUCTIONIST EXPLANATION	125
	Gamson's Contribution to Constructionist Theory	129
	A Constructionist Explanation for Crime Discourse	129
	Conclusions	146
	Notes	146
8	CULTURE AND EXPERIENCE	149
	Cultural Themes	149
	Mass Media	151

Urban and Family Life	153
Class and Race	154
Conclusion	158
Notes	159
9 CONCLUSION	161
Constructionist Theory and Its Limits	162
Politics and Public Policy: The Significance of Crime Against the Tide	165
A Strategy for Progressives	169
Notes	170
APPENDIX A: SCHEDULE OF PEER GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS	173
APPENDIX B: CODING GUIDE	175
APPENDIX C: CRIME WATCH IN BOSTON	185
REFERENCES	187
INDEX	193