

Contents

|          |   |           |
|----------|---|-----------|
| 1 | Financial Development of Post-Socialist Economies:The Main Issues | 1  |
| 1.1.     | The Scope of Financial Transition   | 1         |
| 1.2.     | Financial Aspects of Stabilization in Transition                              | 6         |
| 1.3.     | Financial Liberalization  | 9         |
| 1.4.     | Deep Institution Building: EstablishingProperty Rights                    | 14        |
| 1.5.     | Deep Institution Building: Discipline in FinancialContracting             | 18        |
| 1.6.     | Deep Institution Building: Cleaning up Bad Loans                              | 20        |
| 1.7.     | Deep Institution Building: Banks orSecurities Markets?                    | 23        |
| 1.8.     | The Speed of Transition and the Sequencingof Reform                       | 26        |
| 1.9.     | Conclusion  | 30        |
| 2 | The Domestic Economic Context of Financial Transition                  | 31 |
| 2.1.     | Introduction  | 31        |
| 2.2.     | The Point of Departure  | 32        |
| 2.3.     | Summary of Political Developments   | 34        |
| 2.4.     | Liberalization and Stabilization  | 37        |
| 2.5.     | Macro-trends in Transition  | 46        |
| 2.6.     | Conclusion  | 51        |
| 3 | The International Setting  | 53 |
| 3.1.     | International Economic Relationsunder Communism                           | 53        |
| 3.2.     | Trade Reorientation since 1989  | 54        |
| 3.3.     | External Debt   | 59        |
| 3.4.     | Relations with Multinational Financial Institutions                           | 65        |
| 3.5.     | Exchange Rates and Capital Flows  | 69        |
| 3.6.     | Conclusion  | 73        |
| 4 | Hungary  | 74 |
| 4.1.     | Introduction  | 74        |
| 4.2.     | The Organization of Banking   | 75        |

|          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
| 4.3.     | Instruments of Monetary Control and Monetary Policy                              | 81         |
| 4.4.     | Credit Allocation  | 89         |
| 4.5.     | Bank Supervision and Deposit Insurance   | 96         |
| 4.6.     | Bad Loans and Bank Recapitalization  | 98         |
| 4.7.     | Enterprise Restructuring and the Treatment of Financial Distress                 | 108        |
| 4.8.     | Privatization  | 111        |
| 4.9.     | Role of Banks in Enterprise Restructuring  | 121        |
| 4.10.    | Financial Market Development   | 125        |
| 4.11.    | Evaluation   | 128        |
|          | 131   |            |
| 5 | Poland  | 131        |
| 5.1.     | Introduction   | 133        |
| 5.2.     | The Organization of the Banking Sector   | 139        |
| 5.3.     | Money Markets and Monetary Policy  | 151        |
| 5.4.     | Deposit Guarantees   | 152        |
| 5.5.     | Enterprise Restructuring and Financial Distress                                  | 161        |
| 5.6.     | Bank Recapitalization and the Bad-Debt Problem                                   | 167        |
| 5.7.     | Financial Market Development   | 170        |
| 5.8.     | Assessment   | 175 |
| 6 | The Czech Republic  | 175        |
| 6.1.     | Introduction   | 177        |
| 6.2.     | The Structure of the Banking Sector  | 181        |
| 6.3.     | Patterns of Credit   | 185        |
| 6.4.     | Monetary Policy and the Money Market   | 189        |
| 6.5.     | Bank Regulation and Deposit Insurance  | 191        |
| 6.6.     | Enterprise Restructuring and the Financial Sector                                | 192        |
| 6.7.     | Privatization  |            |
| 6.8.     | Resolution of Financial Distress and Bank Recapitalization                       | 199        |
| 6.9.     | Financial Markets  | 208        |
| 6.10.    | Financial Monitoring and Corporate Control                                       | 213        |
| 6.11.    | Evaluation   | 222        |
| 7 | Comparing Financial Transition in the Czech Republic, Hungary, and Poland | 225 |
|          |  | 225        |
| 7.1.     | Introduction   |            |
| 7.2.     | Has the State Retreated from Controlling the Allocation of Savings?              | 226        |
| 7.3.     | Is the Banking Sector Competitive?   | 232        |
| 7.4.     | Do Investors Direct the Use of Capital?  | 237        |

|   |            |
|---|------------|
| 7.5. Are Securities Markets Developing?                                       | 243        |
| 7.6. Is Outside Finance Supporting Economic Growth?                           | 246        |
| 7.7. Is the Financial System Stable?  | 250        |
| 7.8. Conclusion   | 254        |
| 8 Financial Policy for Transition Countries                            | 258 |
| 8.1. Introduction   | 258        |
| 8.2. Assuring Financial Safety  | 260        |
| 8.3. Banking Competition Policy   | 266        |
| 8.4. Bank Ownership Structure   | 272        |
| 8.5. The Organization of Securities Markets                                   | 276        |
| 8.6. Central Banking and the Money Market                                     | 280        |
| 8.7. Financial Reform and the Negotiation of Entry intothe European Union | 284        |
| Epilogue   | 288        |
| References   | 291        |
| Index  | 299        |