

Contents

List of Figures	xxiii
List of Tables	xxv
1. Introduction	1
Part 1: Context, Concepts and Method	21
2. The Emergence of Violent Racism as a Public Issue	23
3. Violent Racism and Policy Formulation 1981–4	58
4. The Evolution of the Multi-agency Approach to Violent Racism	101
5. Violence, Racism and Crime Surveys: Capturing the Process of Victimization	150
Part 2: Racism, Violence and Policing: An Empirical Study	169
6. Introduction to the Case study	171
7. Racism and Victimization	181
8. Policing Violent Racism	234
9. Conclusions	285
Epilogue	319
Appendix I—Survey Design and Methods	327
Appendix II—Police Organizational Structure	335
Bibliography	347
Index	365

Detailed Contents

I. Introduction	1
Part 1: Context, Concepts and Method	21
2. The Emergence of Violent Racism as a Public Issue	23
Minorities, Racism and Violence in Early British History	23
Violent Racism 1919–48	24
‘Race’, Racism and Immigration in the Post-war Years 1945–58	27
Violent Racism 1948–58	29
‘Race’, Racism and Immigration 1959–67	34
Violent Racism 1959–67	36
Powellism: ‘Race’, Racism and Immigration 1968–77	37
The National Front and Anti-fascism in the 1970s	39
Violent Racism 1968–77	42
Racism and Anti-racism 1978–80	45
Violent Racism 1978–80	51
Summary and Conclusion	54
3. Violent Racism and Policy Formulation 1981–4	58
The 1980s: A Turbulent Decade	58
Racism, Violence and Policing 1981–4	61
The New Cross and Walthamstow Fires	61
Non-government Reports on Violent Racism 1982–4	63
The Police and the Public: Legitimacy, Consent, and Accountability	64
Redefining Violent Racism	71
Metropolitan Police Definition 1978–81	71
The 1981 Home Office Report	74
The Police Response	75
The Local Authority Response	77
Police Liaison Committees	78
Policy Proposals	79
The Scarman Report	79
The 1981 Disorders	79

Disorder in Southall	80
Police (In)action against Violent Racism	80
Police Racism—The Bad Apple Thesis	81
Accountability and Relationship Between Police and Black Communities	82
The Home Affairs Committee 1982	83
Racial Attacks Affect 'All Parts of the Community'	83
Metropolitan Police Policy	84
The Police Re-conceptualize Racial Incidents	85
The GLC Inquiry into Racial Harassment	87
Police Recording of Racial Harassment	87
Racial Harassment by the Police	88
Racial Harassment on Local Authority Housing Estates	90
Co-operation with the Police	91
Violent Racism and the Extreme Right	92
The Police View	92
The Home Office View	94
The GLC View	95
The Academic View	96
Criticism of Agencies Other Than the Police	97
Conclusion	98
4. The Evolution of the Multi-agency Approach to Violent Racism	101
Violent Racism 1984–5	102
Violent Racism and Community Self-defence: The Newham Seven Case	104
Contradictions in Policing Discourse	111
The Challenge to Police Legitimacy Continues	115
The Origins of a Co-ordinated Approach to Crime Prevention	115
Preventing Vandalism in Manchester	116
Police–Community Involvement in Social Crime Prevention	116
A Co-ordinated Approach to Violent Racism	118
The Co-ordinated Approach to Crime Prevention Goes Public	119
Community Policing and the 'Multi-agency Approach'	120
The Multi-agency Approach to Racial Incidents	123
Community Relations Department 'Pilot Studies'	123

Policy Formulation	125
Multi-agency Options	126
Local Authorities and Community Organizations: Were They Pushed or Did They Jump?	128
London Race and Housing Forum 1981	128
The Greater London Council 1982-4	129
The London Borough of Newham	132
The 1986 Home Affairs Committee Report	133
The Problem of Racial Attacks and Harassment	134
The Police Response	135
Advocating the Multi-agency Approach	136
The Inter-Departmental Racial Attacks Group	138
Academic Studies of Co-ordination	140
Martin Rein: Policy into Practice	140
Economic and Social Research Council	141
Academic Scepticism	143
Summary and Conclusions	145
5. Violence, Racism and Crime Surveys: Capturing the Process of Victimization	150
Defining Racial Violence as Crime	151
Surveys of Racial Violence	154
Crime Surveys and the Prioritization of Racial Violence	156
Criminal Incidents and Criminology	157
Racist Victimization as a Process	158
The Process of Racial Harassment: Research and Policy Development	162
Implications for Survey Research	162
Implications for Policy Development	164
Methodological Approach	166
The Way Ahead	168
Part 2: Racism, Violence and Policing in North Plaistow: An Empirical Study	169
6. Introduction to the case study	171
Data Collection	171
The Study Site	172
Geography	172
Social and Economic Characteristics	173

Housing	176
Population	176
Violent Racism in East London	177
7. Racism and Victimization	181
The Views of the Staff of Local Agencies	181
Police recorded Racial Incidents	183
Dispersion and Entrenchment	185
An Episode of Victimization	189
The North Plaistow Racial Harassment Survey	191
The Views of Survey Respondents	192
Views about the Locality	192
Views about Racial Harassment in Relation to Other Problems	192
Views about Problems Relating to Law and Order	194
Views about Police Priorities	194
Fear of Racial Harassment	195
Experiences of Racial Harassment	196
Details Description of Incidents	197
Patterns of Victimization for Each Ethnic–Gender Group	199
Asian People	200
Africans and Afro-Caribbeans	207
White People	209
Mixed-race Families and Relationships	214
Effects of Victimization	216
Perpetrators	218
Racial Motivation: Experience and Context	220
The Process of Racist Victimization and Surveys of Incidents	221
The A family	222
Counting Incidents: Attempting the Impractical	223
Ms J	224
Conclusion	230
8. Policing Violent Racism	234
The Views of Survey Respondents	235
Police Attending the Scene	235
Satisfaction with the Police Response	235
Conceptualizing the Policing Response to Violent Racism	238
Machine Model	239
Subcultural Model	240

'Environmental Model'	240
Class-functionalism	241
Grimshaw and Jefferson's Model	242
Police Occupational Culture: The Literature	244
Racial Incidents and a 'Hierarchy of Police Relevance'	246
Police Occupational Culture: Group Interviews	248
Racial Incidents as a 'Force Priority'	248
Racial Incidents as 'Crime'	249
Racial Incidents as 'Yobishness'	251
Racial Incidents as Disputes and Disturbances	251
Racial Motivation	253
The Causes of Racial Incidents	256
Rank-and-file Police Culture and Racial Incidents as a Force Priority	257
Racial Incidents, Law and Policy	261
Policing Practice—Processing a Racial Incident	263
Stage I: Input and Initial Processing (Figure 8.2)	265
Stage II: Attending the Scene (Figure 8.3)	267
Defining an Event as a Crime	269
Implementing the Operational Policy	270
Defining an Incident as 'Racial'	271
Stage IIIa: Investigation (Figure 8.4)	273
Stage IVa: Preparing a Prosecution (Figure 8.5)	273
Stage IIIb: Follow-up on Racial Incidents (Figure 8.6)	275
Stage IVb: Monitoring Racial Incidents (Figure 8.7)	276
The Outcomes of Policing Practice	278
Law Enforcement	279
Order Maintenance	280
Crime Prevention	280
Information Production and Distribution	282
Performance Indicators: The Clear-up Rate	284
Conclusion	285
9 Conclusions
The Failure of the Police to Protect the Targets of Violent Racism	286
Impact of Police Policy on Policework	288
Constraints on Changing Policing	290
Legal and Organizational Constraints	290
Criminal Evidence	291

Seriousness	292
The Racial Motive	293
Cultural Constraints	294
Democracy and the Limits of the Multi-agency Approach	298
Racial Incidents and Police Resources	302
Shifting the Focus from Victim to Offender	303
Shifting to an Analysis of Violent Racism	307
Expressive and Instrumental Racism	307
Violent Racism and Police Legitimacy	309
Police Legitimacy during the 1980s	309
Impact of Police Policy on Police Legitimacy	311
Alternatives to Policing and the Criminal Justice System	313
Epilogue	318
The Community Safety Unit	320
Police and Local Authority Partnerships	321
Appendix 1—Survey Design and Methods	327
Appendix 2—Police Organizational Structure	335

List of Figures

6.1	Ethnic Minority Population in Newham	174
6.2	New Commonwealth and Pakistan Residents by Ward, Newham	175
8.1	Police Processing of a Racial Incident (Outline)	262
8.2	Stage I: Input and Initial Processing	263
8.3	Stage II: Attending the Scene	266
8.4	Stage IIIa: Investigation	272
8.5	Stage IVa: Prosecution	273
8.6	Stage IIIb: Racial Incident Follow-up	274
8.7	Stage IVb: Final Processing of a Racial Incident	276
A2.1	Metropolitan Police Geographical Hierarchy	336
A2.2	The Structure of a Police Division	337
A2.3	The Structure of the Metropolitan Police Illustrating the Location of Youth and Community Sections (YACS)	339

List of Tables

1.1	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Police in Newham 1986–96	5
1.2	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Police in England & Wales, and Scotland, 1984–96	6
3.1	Racist Murders in Britain 1970–94	59
3.2	Criticisms of the Police Response to Violent Racism	69–70
3.3	Conceptualizing Violent Racism 1978–84	72
4.1	Claims Made for the Multi-Agency Approach by the Home Office, Metropolitan Police, Local Government Agencies (GLC, Newham Council) and Ethnic Minority Community Organizations (cracs)	146
7.1	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Police in North Plaistow 1 July 1987–1 January 1989	184
7.2	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Police in West Ham for 1990	184
7.3	Address Where Incident Occurred for Police Recorded Incidents (1 July 1987–31 December 1988)	186
7.4	Victims' Address for Police Recorded Incidents (1 July 1987–31 December 1988)	187
7.5	Reported Racial Incidents at Skiers Street and Rokeby Street (January 1987–January 1988)	190–1
7.6	Respondents' Opinion of the Greatest 3 Problems in Area (%)	193
7.7	Respondents' Opinion of the Greatest 3 'Crime' Problems in the Area (%)	194
7.8	Which Crimes Should the Police Concentrate on Most? (%)	195
7.9	Respondents' Worry About Themselves Becoming Victims of Racial Harassment (%)	196
7.10	Types of Harassment and Numbers of Incidents Suffered by Respondents over an 18-month Period (weighted figures)	198
7.11	Where the Incident Took Place (%)	199
7.12	Number of Perpetrators Involved in the Incident (%)	219

8.1	Reasons for Dissatisfaction with the Police Response Comparing the NPRHS with BCS 1984, 1988	238
8.2	The 1987 Force Order on Racial Incidents: Operational and Administrative Policy for Relief and Community Officers	260
8.3	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Metropolitan Police by Type of Incident	277
8.4	Action Taken by the Police in Racial Incidents in North Plaistow 1 July 1987-1 January 1989	279
8.5	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Metropolitan Police: Arrests and Clear-ups	283
9.1	Racial Incidents Recorded by the Police in Newham (1990-5)	292
A1.1	Breakdown of the Random Sample	328
A1.2	Whether the Incident Occurred in North Plaistow or Elsewhere	331
A1.3	Ethnic Origin of Respondents in the Random Sample (%)	332
A1.4	Age by Race and Gender (%)	333
A1.5	Number of People Younger than 16 in Household by Race and Gender (%)	333
A1.6	Housing Tenure by Race and Gender (%)	333
A1.7	Length of Time at Current Address by Race and Gender (%)	334
A1.8	Employment Status by Race and Gender (%)	334