

---

CONTENTS

- About the Author ix
- About the Chapter Contributors xi
- Acknowledgments xiii
- 1 Introduction 1
Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
- 2 Workplace and Community Violence:
Intervention and Prevention 4
Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
- The Impact of Random Violence on Community Perceptions 5
  - Violence in the Workplace 6
  - Environmental Factors Associated with Increased Workplace Violence 9
  - Identifying the Potentially Violent Personality 10
  - Crisis Management 15
  - Domestic Violence in the Workplace 20
  - Conclusion 23

3	Domestic and Intimate Relationship Violence	24
	Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
	The Magnitude of the Domestic Violence Problem	26
	Characteristics of Abusive and Violent Relationships	27
	Debunking Myths about Abusive Relationships	28
	Why She Stays: The Barriers to Leaving	30
	Warning Signs of Potential Violence	36
	Impact of Family and Community Violence on Children	38
	Recommendations	42
4	Family Violence, Custody, and Visitation	48
	Charles Patrick Ewing, J.D., Ph.D.
	Family Violence and the Law of Child Custody	51
	Family Violence and the Law of Visitation	55
	Domestic Violence, Custody and Visitation: The Law in Action	58
	Some Suggestions for Legal and Mental Health Professionals	61
5	Stalking in the Community and Workplace	66
	David M. Batza and Michelle Taylor
	Categories of Cases	69
	Assessment	70
	Management Strategies	76
	Prevention	89
6	Crisis and Hostage Negotiations: Community and Corporate Responses to Violent Incidents	97
	Frederick J. Lanceley
	First-Responder Negotiations	97
	Negotiating a Crisis Situation: The Intent	105
	Hostage Negotiations	112
	Kidnap Negotiation: A Team Effort	121
	Conclusion	132

7	Psychopharmacological Management of Traumatic Stress and Aggression	133
	Stuart B. Kleinman, M.D.
	Factors Contributing to Posttraumatic Stress Disorder	134
	Principles in Prescribing Medication for Posttraumatic Stress Disorder	136
	Treatment of Aggression	144
8	Media Depiction and Coverage of Violence: The Impact on Family and Community	159
	Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
	The Media's Stereotype of Women as Victims of Violence	160
	The Media's Stereotype of Women as Perpetrators of Violence	162
	Research Findings: Media, Women, and Violence	164
	Media Violence as "Entertainment"	168
	The Impact of Media Violence on Children	170
	Recommendations for Reducing the Impact of Media Violence	174
9	Juror Stress: Secondary Effects of Crime and Violence in the Course of Civic Duty	176
	Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
	Secondary Traumatization and Juror Stress	177
	The Transition from Acute Stress to Posttraumatic Stress Disorder	178
	Components of a Stressful Trial	179
	Intervention and Stress Management Strategies	187
10	Conclusion	192
	Elizabeth K. Carll, Ph.D.
	We Are Not Helpless	193
	References	199
	Index	213