

Contents

Contributing Authors	page vii
Preface	xi
Introduction: Transitions to Employment in a Cross-National Perspective Walter R. Heinz	1
Part I Social Origin, Gender, and Transition Patterns
1 Social and Geographical Mobility 20 Years after High-School Paul Anisef, Anton H. Turrittin, and Zeng Lin	25
2 Diverse Directions: Young Adults' Multiple Transitions Victor Thiessen and E. Dianne Looker	46
3 New Routes to Employment: Integration and Exclusion John Bynner	65
4 From Education to Employment: Occupations and Careers in the Social Transformation of East Germany Ansgar Weymann	87
Part II Education and Labour Markets: Work Experiences, Skills, and Credentials
5 Adolescent Part-Time Work and Postsecondary Transition Pathways in the United States Jeylan T. Mortimer and Monica Kirkpatrick Johnson	111
6 Multiple Life-Sphere Participation by Young Adults Lesley Andres	149
7 The Subbaccalaureate Labor Market in the United States: Challenges for the School-to-Work Transition W. Norton Grubb	171

8	Creating New Pathways to Adulthood by Adapting German Apprenticeship in the United States Stephen F. Hamilton and Mary Agnes Hamilton	194
9	Job-Entry Patterns in a Life-Course Perspective Walter R. Heinz	214
Part III Changes in the Social Context of Transitions
10	Institutional Networks and Informal Strategies for Improving Work Entry for Youths James E. Rosenbaum	235
11	School-to-Work Transitions and Postmodern Values: What's Changing in Canada? Harvey Krahn and Graham S. Lowe	260
12	Education and Employment in Great Britain: The Polarizing Impact of the Market Frank Coffield	284
13	From Systems to Networks: The Reconstruction of Youth Transitions in Europe Lynne Chisholm	298
	References	319
	Index	345