Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments vii
Abbreviations ix
Introduction 1

Part One  Alternative Perspectives on East Asia: Ideology in Development Visions 13
Chapter 1 A Marxist Perspective on the Neoliberal Versus Structural-Institutionalist Debate 13
Chapter 2 Flying Geese and Greater China Approaches: The Limits of Regionalized "Modernization" 25
Chapter 3 The Challenge and the Contradictions of Dependency Analysis 37
Chapter 4 The Use and Abuse of Japan as a Progressive Model 45

Part Two  Japanese Capitalism: Development, Crisis, and Ideology 59
Chapter 5 The Japanese Economy: Crisis and Ideology 59
Chapter 6 Historical Roots of the Japanese Model 71
Chapter 7 The Postwar Struggle to Reshape the Japanese Political Economy 81
Chapter 8 The Renewal of the Japanese Model 93
Chapter 9 The Japanese Miracle and Its Contradictions 107
Chapter 10 Dilemmas of Mature Japanese Capitalism 123
Part Three  Contradictions of Capitalist Industrialization in East Asia

Chapter 11  State-Capitalist Development, Crisis, and Class Struggle in the NIEs  151
Chapter 12  Imperialism, Exploitation, and Uneven Development in the SEA-3  167

Part Four  East Asia and the Crisis of Development Theory

Chapter 13  Mainstream Responses to the East Asian Crisis  179
Chapter 14  Beyond TINA: Toward Worker-Community Centered Visions of Development  189

Notes  215
References  241
Index  265