

1.1 ACADEMICS

---

page

- Iuliana BOTEZAN, 17
PhD in Information Science, Professor of the Universidad Complutense, Faculty of Information Science, Madrid, Spain — ‘Striking the right balance in disclosing information: a dream or reality?’
- G rard DUBOIS, 20
Professor of Public Health, Head of Public Health Department, Faculty of Medicine, Amiens, France —
‘Communication, relationships with the media, tobacco industry and smuggling’
- Florian NEUHANN, 23
Graduate from the Geschwister-Scholl-Institute for Political Science, University of Munich, and freelance journalist, Germany — ‘OLAF and the public: Why the European Anti-Fraud Office should attach more importance to the active involvement of the public’

1.2 EUROPEAN INSTITUTIONS

---

page

- Franz-Hermann BR NER, 29
Director-General, OLAF, European Commission
— ‘Making sure that communication about fraud is not taboo promotes openness and this in turn will help prevent fraud occurring in the first place.’
— ‘Speech - Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF Anti-Fraud
Communicators’ Network (OAFCN).’

- Alessandro BUTTICÉ,
Head of Unit, 'Communication, Public Relations, Spokesman' and Spokesman for the European Anti-Fraud Office, (OLAF) — 'What anti-fraud information and communication policy for OLAF?'
— 'Speech - Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators' Network (OAFCN).'
- Paulo CASACA,
Member of the European Parliament, Coordinator of the Party of European Socialists (PSE) Group in the Budgetary Control Committee (Cocobu) — 'Secrecy and information: the need to find the right balance'
- Lorenzo CESA,
Member of the European Parliament, Vice-Chairman of the Member Group of the European People's Party (EPP) (CD) and European Democrats (ED), Member of the Budgetary Control Committee (Cocobu) — 'Cui prodest: OLAF without voice?'
- Thierry CRETIN,
Head of Unit, Investigations and Operations Directorate, OLAF, European Commission — 'The art lies in the doing'
- Alain DUMORT,
Acting Director, Directorate-General for Press and Communication, European Commission — 'Putting Europe in the picture: the audiovisual communication of the European Commission'
- Szabolcs FAZAKAS,
Member of the European Parliament, Chairman of the Budgetary Control Committee (Cocobu) — Opening address at the OLAF seminar: 'Deterring fraud by informing the public'
- Henrik HOLOLEI,
Head of Cabinet, Vice President M. Siim KALLAS, Commissioner on Administrative Affairs, Audit and Anti-Fraud, European Commission — 'Speech - Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators' Network (OAFCN).'

- Siim KALLAS, 85
Vice-President for the European Commission on Administrative Affairs, Audit and Anti-Fraud, European Commission — Opening address at the OLAF seminar: 'Deterring fraud by informing the public'
- Raymond Edward KENDALL, 88
Former Chairman of the OLAF Supervisory Committee, Honorary Secretary-General of Interpol, Lyon, France — Opening address: 'Deterring fraud by informing the public'
- Silvana KOCH-MEHRIN, 91
Vice-Chairwoman, Group of the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe, Substitute, Budgetary Control Committee (Cocobu) — 'Perspectives for OLAF'
- Giovanni PITTELLA, 93
Member of the European Parliament (Group DS/PES) — 'The media have a role to play, if not in terms of prevention, at least in encouraging the dissemination of a culture of respect for the law by highlighting the damage which fraudulent activities cause to citizens'
- Michaele SCHREYER, 95
Member of the European Commission responsible for the Budget and the Fight against Fraud, 1999-2004 — Speech — 'To learn to share information which we communicate to the public to let them know what fraud is, how dangerous fraud can be and what we are doing together to tackle the problem'
- Diemut THEATO, 98
Member of the European Parliament, Chairwoman of the Budgetary Control Committee (Cocobu), fifth term: 1999-2004 — Speech — 'An international information network is absolutely necessary and indispensable'

---

MEDIA

- Oscar BARTOLI, 105
Journalist and distinguished lecturer on public relations and mass media, Washington DC, USA — 'The different perspective of a European living in the US'

- Dragan BIENIC, 110
 Journalist of Danas Daily, Chief Editor of the Serbian magazine CorD, Serbia — 'Three unsolved cases in Serbia'
- Enrico BRIVIO, 119
 Journalist, Associated Press Association, Correspondent, Il Sole 24 Ore, Italy — 'An EU press room perspective in anti-fraud communication strategy'
- Paolo DI GIANNANTONIO, 124
 Journalist, RAI I news service — 'Why informing and communicating also means fighting and preventing fraud: a personal experience'
- Daniela FILIPESCU, 128
 European correspondent, Prima TV Romania — 'Communication towards citizens: a democratic principle in the work of the institutions'
- Michael STABENOW, 136
 President of the International Press Association of Brussels correspondents — 'Speech - Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators' Network (OAFCN).'
- Cristian UNTEANU, 140
 European correspondent, Prima TV Romania — 'Communication towards citizens: a democratic principle in the work of institutions'
- Johannes VON DOHNANYI, 143
 Journalist, Sonntags Blick, Ringier AG, Zurich, Switzerland — 'Investigative journalists and the protection of sources'
- Aidan WHITE, 147
 General Secretary of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) — 'Speech - Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators' Network (OAFCN).'

1.4 NATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, INVESTIGATIVE AND JUDICIAL SERVICES

-
- Anu ADRA, page 155
 Head of Public Relations Bureau, Estonian Police Board;
  - Annika LOIGU,
 Advisor — Public Relations Department, Ministry of Finance/Anti-Fraud Coordination Service, Estonia;

Marke TARMO,

Head of Public Relations Department, Estonian Customs Board — 'How information and communication can be a means of EU fraud prevention and a true service for the citizens in the respect of their rights'

■ Ioan AMARIE,

General Prosecutor, National Anti-Corruption Prosecution Office (NAPO) — Speech — 'The Romanian PNA's experience'

158

■ Lars ANDRÉN,

Head of Information, Swedish customs

162

Eva-Lisa LENNSTRAND,

Head of Communication, Economic Crimes Bureau, Sweden — 'A strategy of communication adapted to the Swedish laws of transparency'

■ Corinne CLEOSTRATE,

Head of the Information and Communication Office, French Customs and Indirect Taxation Directorate-General — 'Why an investigation service should have both the possibility and the duty to engage in communication activities relating to its activity: the experience of French customs'

167

■ General B. Walter CRETELLA LOMBARDO,

General, Head of Unit II of the General Commando, Guardia di Finanza, Italy — 'The Guardia di Finanza's anti-fraud communication plan'

169

■ Arturo CUERVO,

Former Director of the Communication, Information and Social Relations Office, Guardia Civil, Spain — 'Using communication in smuggling prevention'

171

■ Ekaterina GENOVA,

Former Head of the Public Relations Department, Bulgarian customs — 'Bulgarian customs and the media'

173

■ Adam HEMPEL,

PhD, Director of the Bureau for International Treasury Relations, Ministry of Finance, Poland — 'The scope and methods of cooperation with the mass media, institutions and concerned units involved in protecting public Community funds in Poland'

175

- Ion ILIESCU,
President of Romania, May 1990–November 1996
and December 2000–December 2004 — Speech — ‘Information and communication as a means of creating a public culture of honesty and transparency in the disbursement of public funds’

179
- David JONES,
Head of Information, Serious Fraud Office, United Kingdom — ‘Information partnership between the media and an investigative service’

182
- Anssi KARTILA,
Senior Investigation Officer, National Board of Customs, Finland — Speech — ‘Communication tools and international operations as a means of fraud prevention’

190
- Antonio LAUDATI,
National Anti-Mafia Deputy Prosecutor, National Anti-Mafia
Bureau — ‘Using mass media to fight organised crime’

194
- Julio LESMES ANEL,
Deputy Director responsible for External Communication, Spanish Taxation Agency, Spain — ‘An integrated strategy in the fight against fraud’

198
- Richard LINNING,
FIPR Euprera Former President, European Confederation of Public Relations, IPRA Campaign for Media Transparency, Expert on the Romanian Prime Minister’s Department of Inspection and Monitoring of the Transparent Use of Community Funds — ‘Fighting and preventing fraud also means informing and communicating: a personal perspective’

201
- Me. Noël LOUIS,
Member of the French-speaking Bar, mediator - ‘Speech -
Joint seminar of the International Federation of Journalists (IFJ) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) for the OLAF
Anti-Fraud Communicators’ Network (OAFCN).’

206
- Lieven MUYLEAERT,
Head of the Communication Department, Belgian
Customs and Excise Administration;

Luc DE SOMERE,
Head of Investigation Service, National Investigation
Department of Belgian customs and excise ‘How the diffusion of information can contribute to optimise the fight against fraud’

209

- Francesco NAPOLETANO,
 Director of the Communication and External
 Relations Department, Agenzia delle Dogane, Italy
 — ‘Information partnership’

214
- Adrian NASTASE,
 Prime Minister of Romanian Government, December
 2000–December 2004 — Speech — ‘The importance of the measures to combat fraud and to raise awareness of the general public and of journalists in particular’

216
- Italo PAPPA,
 General, Guardia di Finanza, Revenue Police, Italy — ‘On the side of the honest: how informing and communicating can help to fight and prevent fraud’

220
- Lieve PELLENS,
 Spokesman, Federal Prosecutor’s Office, Belgium —
 ‘The press magistrate’

227
- Victor PONTA,
 Doctor (PhD), Chief of Prime Minister’s Control Department, April 2001–March 2003, Chief of Government’s Control Department, March 2003–December 2004, Minister Delegate for the Control of the International Grant Programmes’ Implementation and for Monitoring the Application of the Acquis Communautaire, 2004, — ‘Information and communication: why an investigative service should have the powers and the duty to communicate on its work and what its limits are’

235
- Francesca RUGGIERI,
 Lawyer, Academic Project Manager, Centre for European Criminal Law, Como, Italy — ‘Information and fraud prevention in the European Union: the viewpoint of a criminal procedure lawyer’

240
- Mihai TANASESCU,
 Minister for Finance, Romanian Government,
 December 2000–December 2004 — Speech:
 ‘Information and communication: improving transparency and the procedures for spending public funds’

242
- Juha VILKKO,
 Senior Customs Inspector, National Board of Customs, Finland — Speech: ‘The role of mass media in the fight against fraud’

244

1.5 TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL

- Jeff LOVITT,
Former Director of Communications, Transparency International, Germany — Speech — ‘The information challenge: Transparency International and combating corruption’
- Anke MARTINY,
Board Member of Transparency International, Germany — ‘Communication — Key to flushing out corruption’

2. ANNEXES

- 2.1. The European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF)
- 2.2. OLAF's anti-fraud communication and public relations strategy
- 2.3. Conclusions of the fourth training seminar of the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators Network (OAFCN)
- 2.4. Conclusions of the fifth training seminar of the OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators Network (OAFCN)
- 2.5. The OLAF Anti-Fraud Communicators Network (OAFCN)