

A bibliographic guide to the comparative study of ethics

Contents

Consultants	vii
Contributors	viii
Introduction: a global map of ethical traditions Mark Juergensmeyer	1
1. Hindu ethics Barbara A. Holdrege	12
2. Indian, Tibetan, and Southeast Asian Buddhist ethics Douglas Renfrew Brooks	70
3. Ancient Chinese ethics Christopher Cleary	102
4. Chinese Buddhist ethics Kyoko Tokuno	125
5. Taoist ethics Terry F. Kleeman	162
6. Neo-Confucian religious ethics Thomas W. Selover	195
7. Ethics in the Japanese religious tradition William Deal	228
8. Ancient Greek religious ethics William J. Cassidy III	279

9.	Jewish ethics Samuel S. Wineburg	309
10.	Early Christian ethics Jozef M. L. Van Gerwen	337
11.	Medieval Christian ethics Dianne M. Bazell	366
12.	Early modern Christian ethics: the Reformation period Valerie DeMarinis	415
13.	Modern Christian ethics Gabriel Palmer-Fernández	463
14.	The ethics of Muslims: Islamic and Islamicate ethics Kevin Reinhart	513
15.	Modern Western philosophical ethics Russell F. Sizemore and John F. Kilner	562
	Appendix A: Native American ethics Douglas Mansager	628
	Appendix B: Cross-cultural studies of ethics Mark Juergensmeyer and Robert Traer	644
	Appendix C: Index of cross-cultural topics	662