

Blue-Collar Workers and Politics A French Paradox

RICHARD A. DeANGELIS

Published in Association with
The Flinders University of South Australia

CROOM HELM
London & Canberra

CONTENTS

List of Tables
Preface
Acknowledgements

THEORETICAL INTRODUCTION AND CONTEXT OF THE STUDY	1
A) Implications of the "Events" of May 1968 for Blue-Collar Politics	1
B) The French Case: Puzzles of Blue-Collar Politics	4
C) Definitions of Class and Working-Class Characterizations	7
D) Alternative Explanations of Blue-Collar Behaviour and Ideology	13
E) The Present Study: Specific Aims and Methods	16
1. DIVERSITY AND UNIFORMITY IN WORKLIFE: JOBS, WORKING CONDITIONS, AND ATTITUDES TOWARD WORK	29
A) Diversity and Uniformity: Who's a Worker?	29
B) The Work Task	39
C) Working Conditions	42
D) Personal Relationships at Work	44
E) Work and On-the-job Personal Relations Satisfactions	46
Summary	47
2. BECOMING A BLUE-COLLAR WORKER SOCIALLY: CLASS PRESSURES AND CROSS-PRESSURES	54
A) Social "Integration" into the Working Class: Class Inheritance or Social Mobility?	55
B) Localism or Cosmopolitanism?/Ethnic Separatism or Assimilation?	58
C) Non-economic Disadvantages, Traumas, and "Proletarian" Culture?	61

D)	Affluence? Toward Embourgeoisement ?	65
E)	Trade Union Influences	77
F)	Non-Leftist Social Pressures: Religion, Nationalism, Peasant Traditionalism and other Influences	80
	Summary	92
3.	CHOOSING AMONG SOCIAL IDENTITIES: WHICH LOYALTIES ARE MOST IMPORTANT?	107
A)	Working-class "Consciousness" and "Revolutionary" Leftism?	107
B)	Unions and Strikes: Regretful Solidarity	112
C)	National and Ethnic Reference Groups	121
D)	Religion	129
E)	Rural, Generational, and Sexual Identities	134
F)	Voluntary Association Memberships	138
	Conclusion	139
4.	MAKING SENSE OF A COMPLEX SOCIETY: WORKING CLASS IDEOLOGIES	145
A)	Worries, Values, and Visions of the Good Life	145
B)	Trust in People? Views of Human Nature and Freedom	154
C)	Faith in the Status Quo and Conservative Traditionalism	158
D)	Authority, Order and Discipline, or "Post-Bourgeois" Values?	165
E)	Trust in the Liberal Democratic Process and the State Bureaucracy? Ideological "Coherence" on a Left- Right Continuum? and Summary	171 176
5.	CHOOSING SIDES: PARTISANSHIP AND POLITICAL BEHAVIOUR	183
A)	Attitudes toward "Politics" and Government/The State	184
B)	Political Parties and Partisanship	186
C)	Political Participation	197
D)	Voting Behaviour	205
E)	Explaining Diversity in Partisan Identity and Voting Behaviour	210
	SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS	224
	APPENDICES	244

A)	Interview Guide: Questionnaire	244
B)	Total Left Vote (Communists, Socialists, Left Radicals) in Study Area Compared to Département and France: 1946-1981	252
C)	Summary of Gamma Correlations: Indepen- dent Variables by Partisan Identity (Left-Centre-None-Right)	253
D)	28 Primary Respondents by 1973-1974 Vote: Summary of Important Characteristics	260

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	268
---------------------	-----

INDEX	280
-------	-----