

CONFESSIONALISM AND PIETISM

Religious Reform in Early Modern Europe

EDITED BY
FRED VAN LIEBURG

VERLAG PHILIPP VON ZABERN · MAINZ

2006

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction

- FRED VAN LIEBURG
Conceptualizing religious reform movements in early modern Europe 1

I. Tradition

- DAVID B. ELLER
The recovery of the love feast in German Pietism 11

- WILLEM J. OP 'T HOF
Protestant Pietism and medieval monasticism 31

- SALVADOR RYAN
From late medieval piety to Tridentine Pietism?
The case of seventeenth-century Ireland 51

- CRAIG ATWOOD
Separatism, ecumenism, and pacifism: the Bohemian and Moravian Brethren in the confessional age 71

II. Implementation

- MARY NOLL VENABLES
Pietist fruits from orthodox seeds: the case of Ernst the Pious of Saxe-Gotha-Altenburg 91

- JÜRGEN BEYER
Strategien zur Hebung der Frömmigkeit in Est- und Livland (1621-1700).
Konfessionalisierung und Pietismus 111

- DOUGLAS SHANTZ
Politics, prophecy and Pietism in the Halberstadt conventicle, 1691-1694: Pietism and the confessional state in Brandenburg 129

- JONATHAN STROM
Conversion, confessionalization, and Pietism in Dargun 149

III. Communication

RAYMOND GILLESPIE

Local lives: the social context of religious allegiances in seventeenth-century Ireland 168

JANIS KRESLINS

Devotional literature, confessional allegiance, pietistic undercurrents and the various meanings of identity in early modern Northern Europe 183

JOHAN DE NIET

Comforting the sick: confessional cure of souls and pietist comfort in the Dutch Republic 197

CAROLA NORDBÄCK

The conservative Pietism and the Swedish confessional state,
1720-1740 213

IV. Imagination

ARNE BUGGE AMUNDSEN

A separatist movement in Norway around 1650. A contribution to the history of Pietism in Europe. 231

CLAUS BERNET

Der lange Weg aus der Konfession in den radikalen Pietismus.
Von Babel in das himmlische Jerusalem – am Beispiel von Leonhard C. Sturm, Elias Eller und “Chimonius” 255

ANDRÉ SWANSTRÖM

Confessionalism viewed by a Finnish Pietist 283

PETER VOGT

In search of the invisible church: the role of autobiographical discourse in eighteenth-century German Pietism 293

Conclusion

HARTMUT LEHMANN

Competing concepts for the study of religious reform movements, including Pietism, in early modern Europe and in North-America 313

List of authors

323