

Manuel Köster, Holger Thünemann,
Meik Zülsdorf-Kersting (Eds.)

Researching History Education

International Perspectives and Disciplinary Traditions

WOCHEN
SCHAU
GESCHICHTE

Contents

Manuel Köster, Holger Thünemann, Meik Zülsdorf-Kersting Introduction	5
Sebastian Bracke, Colin Flaving, Manuel Köster, Meik Zülsdorf-Kersting History Education Research in Germany. Empirical Attempts at Mapping Historical Thinking and Learning	9
Mario Carretero History Learning Research in Spain and Latin America	56
Penney Clark History Education Research in Canada. A Late Bloomer	81
Peter Gautschi History Education Research in Switzerland	104
Violetta Julkowska The History of Polish Reflection on the Didactics of History	133
Christoph Kühberger History Education Research in Austria	150
Peter Lee Fused Horizons? UK Research into Students' Second-Order Ideas in History: A Perspective from London	170
Esko Nikander, Arja Virta History Education in Finland. Currents in Research and Curriculum History	195
Nicole Tutiaux-Guillon History Didactics in France. Research and Professional Issues	218

Carla van Boxtel
Insights from Dutch Research on History Education.
Historical Reasoning and a Chronological Frame of Reference	236
 Bodo von Borries
Three Generations of History Lessons.
Qualitative-Empirical Research on Learning and Teaching on the Basis of Lesson Protocols	263
 Sam Wineburg, Avishag Reisman
Research on Historical Understanding.
A Brief Glimpse from American Shores	301
 Contributors	319