

CONFLICT, POLITICS AND CRIME

Aboriginal Communities and the Police

Chris Cunneen

ALLEN & UNWIN

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
List of acronyms	viii
List of tables	ix
1 Introduction	1
2 The criminalisation of Indigenous people	17
Police custody	18
Imprisonment	21
Juvenile detention	23
Explaining Aboriginal offending patterns and over-representation	24
Offending patterns	25
The impact of policing on offending	29
The law and policing	32
Judicial decision-making	34
Spatial factors: environment and location	36
Cultural difference	38
Socioeconomic factors	40
Resistance	42
Theorising the impact of policing on crime figures	43
3 The nature of colonial policing	46
Dispossession and war: police as military	49
The intensity of surveillance: police as guardians	62
The regulation of personal, familial and social relations	66
Assimilation	73
The nature of colonial policing	75
4 From over-policing to zero tolerance	80
Over-policing	85
Policing social and cultural life	91

Paramilitary police and public order	97
Over-policing and zero tolerance	102
5 Terror, violence and the abuse of human rights	106
Terror and the politics of colonialism	106
Policing as terror	108
Terror and trauma	121
The abuse of human rights	127
6 Police culture and the use of discretion	130
Police discretion and Indigenous young people	132
Police culture	143
Discretion, police culture and human rights	154
7 Policing Indigenous women	157
Colonisation as a gendered project	158
Policing responses to violence against Indigenous women	160
Indigenous women and public order offences	165
The effects of public order policing	166
8 Governance and the policing of contested space	180
Social space and social order: the spatiality of policing	180
Resistance and governance	191
9 The reform of policing policies	205
Community policing and proportional responses	206
Aboriginal Policy Statements and Aboriginal Strategic Plans	210
Management strategies	213
Aboriginal Community Police and Community Liaison Officers	216
The demand for greater autonomy: Aboriginal Justice Agreements	221
10 Policing and postcolonial self-determination	229
Citizenship, human rights and the criminal justice system	233
Indigenous self-determination	237
Self-determination in the international context	244
Notes	253
Bibliography	269
Index	295