

CRIMINALIZATION OF ACTIVISM

Historical, Present, and Future
Perspectives

Edited by Valeria Vegh Weis

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	xiii
Preface by Dario Melossi	xiv
List of contributors	xvii
Acknowledgements	xxiv
Introduction	1
PART I
Theoretical approaches on the over-criminalization of dissent	17
1 Politics of exception: criminalizing activism in Western European democracies Katharina Fritsch and Andrea Kretschmann	19
2 A social control perspective for the study of environmental harm and resistance Alida Szalai	30
3 The criminalization and “innovation” of resistance: looking at the Italian case Verónica Marchio	42

Part II
Historical experiences on the over-criminalization of dissent	49
4 Avoiding and amplifying the criminal label in the roman republic and medieval England Matt Clement	51
5 The criminalization of low-rank castes: a historical perspective of mahad movement in India (1927–1937) Kruthi Jagadish Kumar, Praveenrao Bolli, and Myrna Cintron	61
6 “Loyal spear-carriers”: police violence in the Queensland anti-apartheid movement, 1971 Paul Bleakley	71
7 The theorem of national solidarity: Italy and the “7 Aprile” case: the criminalisation of left-wing dissent Vincenzo Scalia	81
Part III
Current cases of over-criminalization of dissent in the Global North	91
8 Resistance to survive: the criminalization of the Black Lives Matter movement Teresa Francis Divine and Ginny Norris Blackson	93
9 Between crime and war: the security model of protest policing Paul A. Passavant	103
10 Fighting for the right to save others: responses by civil society to the criminalization of solidarity in the mediterranean sea post-2015 Christal Chapman	115
11 Media representation of Belgian youth protests: the making of “Climate Truants” Mafalda Pardal, Celine Tack and Frédérique Bawin	130

12	Criminalization as strategy of power: the case of Catalunya 2017–2020 Ignasi Bernat and David Whyte	141
13	Notes from the Field I: State denial to harass the messengers: The case of OSPDH/SIRECOVI Alejandro Forero-Cuéllar and Daniel Jiménez-Franco	153
Part IV
Current cases of over-criminalization of dissent in the Global South		159
14	Social protest and punitive treatment in Argentina: an analysis from Latin American critical criminology Gabriela L. Gusic and Rodrigo F. Videla	161
15	Colombia's murderous democracy pre- and post-covid-19: the assassination of social leaders and the criminalization of protest Natalia Ruiz Morato	170
16	Violence and violations of rights against leaderships in the Brazilian Amazon Paula Lacerda and Igor Rolemberg	180
17	An analysis of the criminalisation of socio-environmental activism and resistance in contemporary Latin America Israel Celi Toledo, Roxana Pessoa Cavalcanti, and Grace Iara Souza	191
18	Notes from the field II: the judicial persecution in the Amazonian Indigenous struggle—"El Baguazo"—Amazonas-Perú Saúl Puerta Peña-Pueblo Awajun	201
Part V
Challenges for a critical agenda on the over-criminalization of dissent		205
19	Artificial intelligence and the criminalisation of activism Mark Cowling	207

20	Covid cops: a recent history of pandemic policing during the coronavirus crisis Greg Martin	216
21	Punitive feminism (or When and why did we start dividing the world between good and evil, rather than between oppressed and oppressors?): Punitive Feminism Tamar Pitch	232
22	Genocidal activism and the language of criminality: reflections on the duality of the Nazi era and the avoidance of engagement with histories of social and political activism at the nuremberg trials Wayne Morrison	246
	Index	257